Tucked away in the private, secure and ultra-exclusive Can Girona neighbourhood, Villa Sapphire I enjoys an exceptional setting with uninterrupted views across the Mediterranean Sea and lush green fairways of the nearby golf course. This is one of Sitges' most sought-after enclaves, offering privacy and tranquillity just minutes from the energy and charm of the town centre.

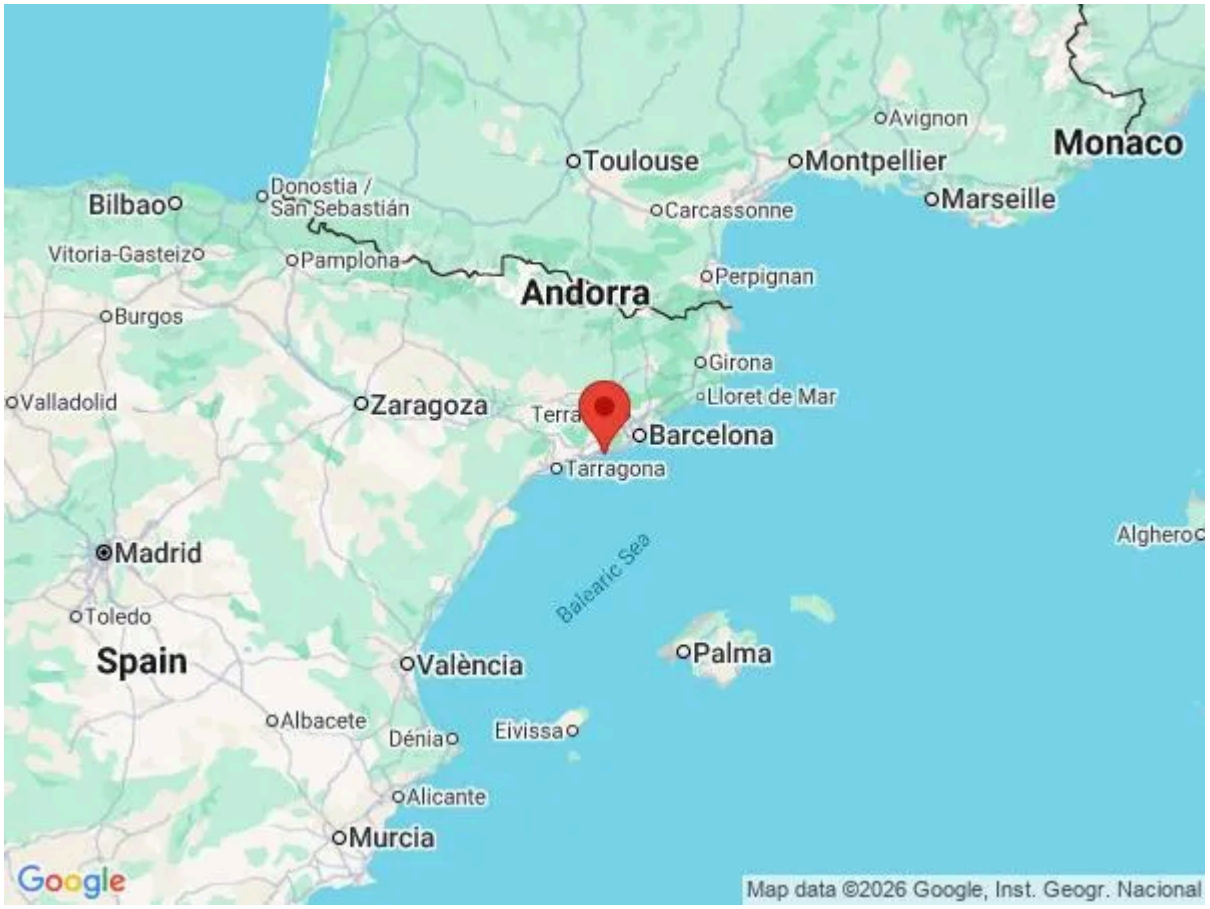

From the villa, it's only a 5-minute drive to Sitges' beaches, a string of golden sands, family-friendly coves and stylish chiringuitos that make this part of the Costa Dorada so beloved. Sitges town itself is one of the jewels of the Catalan coast. Known for its artistic heritage, vibrant LGBTQ+ scene, and year-round festivals, the town offers something for everyone. There are plenty of restaurants, beach bars, boutiques and markets, plus excellent museums like the Maricel and Cau Ferrat. The bustling seafront promenade is perfect for sunset walks and people-watching.

Right next door to the villa is Terramar Golf Club, one of Spain's oldest and most scenic golf courses. Whether you're an avid golfer or just fancy lunch in their lovely club restaurant, the location couldn't be more convenient. The Eurostars Sitges resort and spa is also nearby, offering a brilliant bar and dining option, wellness treatments, and a great Sunday brunch, all within walking distance.

If you're planning day trips, Barcelona is only around 45 minutes by car (or an easy train ride from Sitges station), while wine lovers can visit the nearby Penedès region, home to some of Spain's best cava vineyards.
