

Villa Mugello

Region: Tuscany   Sleeps: 18

---

Overview

Villa Mugello is a peaceful countryside retreat for up to 18 guests, set in the green hills of northern Tuscany, offering a refreshing alternative to the region's more crowded hotspots. Surrounded by open landscapes and woodland, the villa provides a calm and private setting where days naturally slow down and time is best spent outdoors, enjoying the space and scenery.

Inside, the villa has a relaxed and welcoming feel, with comfortable living areas designed for groups to gather easily throughout the day. The interiors are practical and unfussy, creating a home-like atmosphere that suits long summer stays and shared holidays. Large openings connect the indoor spaces with the garden, encouraging an easy flow between the house and the surrounding countryside.

Outside, the private swimming pool is the focal point of the villa, set within a generous garden that invites guests to unwind under the Tuscan sun. There is ample room for sunbathing, swimming and enjoying quiet moments with a book, while shaded areas provide welcome relief during the warmer hours. Outdoor dining spaces make it easy to enjoy meals al fresco, from lazy lunches to relaxed evenings spent together as the light fades over the hills.

Villa Mugello is well positioned for exploring a lesser-known yet beautiful part of Tuscany. Nearby villages offer a glimpse of local life, while scenic drives lead through forests, valleys and traditional mountain towns. Ideal for guests seeking space, nature and a slower pace, Villa Mugello offers an authentic Tuscan escape where the setting is as much a part of the experience as the villa itself.

Location & Local Information

Villa Mugello is set in the unspoilt countryside of northern Tuscany, close to the small village of Palazzuolo sul Senio, an area known for its forests, mountain landscapes and traditional way of life. This peaceful corner of the region feels far removed from the busier tourist routes, making it ideal for guests seeking a quieter and more rural Tuscan experience.

Palazzuolo sul Senio offers essential amenities including small shops, cafés and local restaurants, along with a welcoming village atmosphere. The surrounding area is well suited to outdoor activities, with scenic walking routes, cycling trails and riverside spots that are particularly enjoyable during the warmer months. The landscape here is greener and more rugged than central Chianti, offering a refreshing change of pace and cooler summer evenings.

The villa is also well placed for exploring wider Tuscany and Emilia-Romagna by car. Historic towns such as Florence, Faenza and Bologna can be reached for rewarding day trips, combining cultural sights, food markets and historic centres. Closer to home, quiet roads wind through valleys and hilltop villages, perfect for leisurely drives and discovering lesser-known corners of the region. Villa Mugello's location is ideal for guests who value nature, space and an authentic local setting over busy resort life.

What we love

- Villa Mugello is set in the peaceful northern Tuscany, far from the region's busier tourist centres, making this property the ideal escape from busy city life.
- The Villa's multiple communal areas are great for a multi-generational holiday, including games spaces, encouraging sociable group time for the whole family.
- The two independent annex apartments offering added privacy within the same property are idea for grandparents or older children who might like to escape noise of the family games.

What you should know...

- The villa is arranged over several floors and accessed via stairs, which may not suit guests with limited mobility
- The garden and pool area are arranged across different levels, so children should be supervised
- The property is located in the village and does not have private on-site parking, with public parking available nearby
- Villa Mugello sleeps 10 guests across 5 bedrooms in the main villa. When booking the lower occupancy of 10 guests, the annexe will be closed and not accessible to guests. When booking the higher capacity, guests will have access to the main villa and annexe, however, please note that 4 guests are accommodated on double sofa beds in the main villa.
