Location & Local Information

Set in the charming town of Sant'Agnello, Villa della Costa enjoys a privileged position along one of the Amalfi Coast's most desirable stretches. Just moments from the lively centre of Sorrento, Sant'Agnello offers a slightly quieter, more residential atmosphere while still providing easy access to restaurants, cafés and local shops. From here, guests can soak up authentic coastal life without being far from the action.

The surrounding area is celebrated for its dramatic cliffs, citrus groves and sweeping views across the Bay of Naples towards Mount Vesuvius. A short drive or train ride brings you into Sorrento's historic centre, where narrow streets are lined with artisan boutiques, gelaterias and traditional trattorias serving regional specialities. Marina Grande offers a charming waterfront setting for seafood lunches by the water, while beach clubs and rocky bathing platforms provide opportunities to swim in the clear Mediterranean Sea.

Sant'Agnello is also an excellent base for exploring further afield. Day trips to Positano, Amalfi and Ravello reveal colourful architecture and breathtaking coastal roads, while ferries connect you to the islands of Capri and Ischia. For those interested in history, Pompeii and Herculaneum are within easy reach. Whether you prefer leisurely days by the sea, cultural excursions or scenic coastal drives, Villa della Costa places you at the heart of it all.
