Villa La Veduta

Region: Amalfi Coast Sleeps: 10

Overview

With sweeping views across the Bay of Naples and a peaceful setting above Sorrento, Villa La Veduta offers a refined yet relaxed base for experiencing the Amalfi Coast. Designed for unhurried summer living, this elegant villa combines generous indoor spaces with panoramic terraces and a private swimming pool, creating an idyllic setting for families or groups of friends seeking both comfort and scenery.

The interiors are bright and welcoming, with spacious living areas that open towards the garden and frame the glittering sea beyond. A well-equipped kitchen makes it easy to prepare leisurely breakfasts or celebratory dinners, while the dining and lounge spaces invite long evenings spent together after sun-soaked days exploring the coast. Air conditioning ensures comfort during the warm Mediterranean months, and thoughtful details throughout the home enhance the sense of ease and privacy.

Outside, the villa truly lives up to its name. The private swimming pool is perfectly positioned to take in the views, surrounded by sun loungers and shaded corners for reading or relaxing. The garden and furnished terraces provide ample space for al fresco dining, morning coffee overlooking the water, or sunset aperitivos as the sky turns shades of pink and gold. Private parking adds a welcome convenience in this sought-after region.

Located within easy reach of Sorrento's historic centre, beaches and marina, Villa La Veduta allows guests to enjoy the vibrant atmosphere of the town before retreating to their own tranquil hillside haven with unforgettable coastal vistas.

Location & Local Information

Perched in the hills above Sorrento, Villa La Veduta enjoys a privileged position overlooking the Bay of Naples, with far-reaching views stretching towards Mount Vesuvius. The setting offers a peaceful retreat from the bustle of town, while still being within easy reach of Sorrento's vibrant centre.

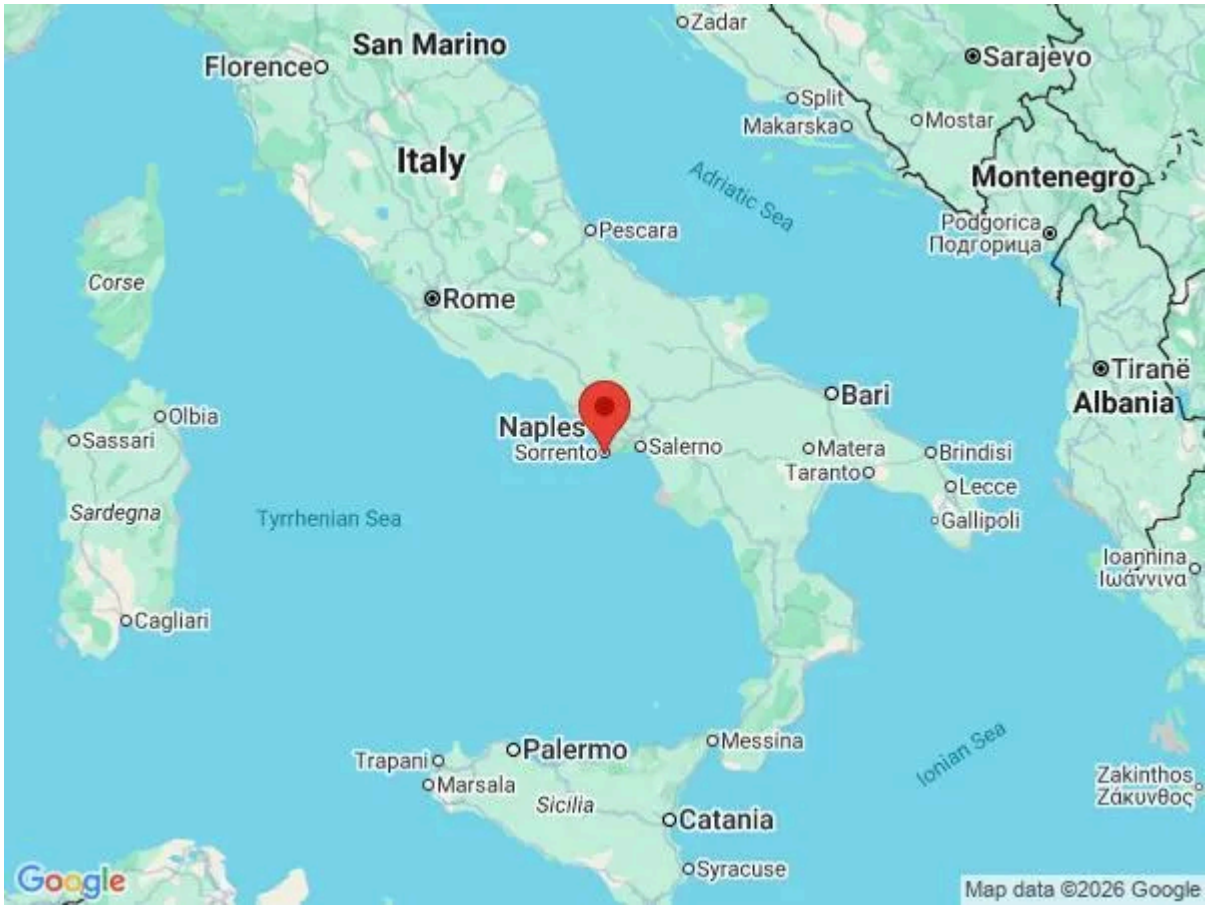

Sorrento is known for its charming historic streets, lined with artisan boutiques, gelaterias and traditional trattorias serving local specialities such as fresh seafood, handmade pasta and limoncello crafted from the region's fragrant lemons. The Marina Grande provides a picturesque waterfront setting for relaxed lunches by the sea, while beach clubs and bathing platforms offer access to the clear Mediterranean waters during the summer months.

The villa's location makes it an excellent base for exploring the wider region. The Amalfi Coast's iconic towns, including Positano and Amalfi, can be reached by car or boat, offering dramatic coastal scenery and colourful architecture. Ferries connect Sorrento to the island of Capri, perfect for a day trip to explore hidden coves and elegant piazzas. For history enthusiasts, Pompeii and Herculaneum are within comfortable driving distance.

Villa La Veduta combines scenic tranquillity with convenient access to some of southern Italy's most celebrated destinations.

What we love

- The panoramic terraces with sweeping views across the Bay of Naples.
- The villa's private swimming pool and heated hot tub are ideal for relaxed summer days enjoying the sun.
- Villa La Veduta's on-site parking for three cars is a valuable feature in the Sorrento area, as exploring the local area is best done by car.
- The family-friendly layout with a dedicated toddler play area in the garden is great for multi-generational families.

What you should know...

- Please note that the pool and hot tub are seasonal and only available from April to the end of October.
- While the sofa bed is available on prior arrangement with the owner, the property is best suited to 10 guests.
- The bunk bed room in Villa La Veduta is only suitable for children due to the layout and the size of the beds.
- Please note that terraces and balconies have railings with large gaps, young children should be supervised at all times.
- A gardener will be present every morning to keep the garden in great shape, they will also collect fresh produce for all guests to enjoy.
