Marquess Inn

Region: The North East Sleeps: 34

Overview

Imagine arriving at your very own historic riverside pub, the Old River Ancholme flowing gently beside you and original wooden decor and quirky spaces welcoming you in. Marquess Inn isn't just a place to stay, it's an experience - a fully restored 18th century pub and hotel transformed into a total pub takeover self catering holiday home for up to 40 guests.

Awarded 4 Star Gold by Visit England & The AA, from the moment you step through the original bar doors, you'll feel the character and personality that make this venue so special. Beneath its Grade II listed frontage lies a generous open plan bar and dining space that flows into games and living areas, complete with piano nook, pool table, darts, retro arcade game, 4 large TVs, giant scrabble and board games that invite laughter long into the night. Bi fold doors open onto your private riverside beer garden and mooring, perfect for morning coffee or evening drinks under the stars.

Whether you're planning a milestone birthday, family reunion, hen do, wedding or corporate event or just a getaway with friends, Marquess Inn combines relaxed comfort with endless possibilities. The fully equipped kitchen with high end appliances makes group cooking a joy, or you can pair your stay with local caterers for a meal to remember.

Perfectly placed in historic Brigg with independent shops, weekly markets, riverside walks and nearby golf courses, your stay here will be as adventurous or as restful as you choose.

Location & Local Information

Marquess Inn sits proudly at the edge of Brigg's historic market square, on the Old River Ancholme, making it the perfect base to enjoy this charming North Lincolnshire town.

Brigg itself is a welcoming market town with cobbled streets, independent shops, boutiques and traditional cafés just a short stroll from your door. The town hosts a lively Thursday and Saturday market, and you'll find plenty of local places to eat and drink within easy walking distance.

Nearby attractions include the local heritage at Brigg Heritage Centre, family‑friendly fun at FunForest Brigg and the beautiful gardens of Elsham Hall. For a quieter pace, relax by the riverbank or explore scenic countryside walks along the Ancholme Valley Way.

Whether you're here to explore Brigg's history or enjoy its local hospitality, Marquess Inn's location puts the best of this delightful town right at your feet.
