Cal Bargallo

Region: Sitges Sleeps: 16

Overview

Sitting in the heart of Olivella's historic village, Cal Bargallo offers a refined rural escape with effortless access to both nature and culture. The The interiors strike a calm, contemporary tone with a minimalist palette of grey, white, and natural wood. The thoughtful design includes a spacious kitchen and dining area, a larder with generous cold storage, a lounge with log-burning stove and a dedicated office space. The five ensuite bedrooms cater to a range of group configurations, with additional beds and child-friendly options. The home stays cool thanks to an eco-conscious rooftop sprinkler system that uses recycled rainwater.

The outdoor areas are just as considered, offering a lawn shaded by palms, a barbecue setup, and a large shower for cooling off. Multiple access points from the house open into this peaceful garden, which looks out over rolling hills and the surrounding village. Just behind the property is a children's park and the village church, grounding Cal Bargallo in the local rhythm of Olivella.

Surrounded by the scenic Garraf Natural Park, this five-bedroom home offers character and comfort in a quiet yet well connected setting. Guests can hike or bike through forested trails, visit the local outdoor cafe, or enjoy live music on Sundays - all just steps from the front door. Sitges and Vilafranca del Penedès are a short drive away, while Barcelona's dynamic city life is within easy reach for day trips.

Location & Local Information

Cal Bargallo is perfectly placed for enjoying the best of Catalonia's coast, countryside, and culture. Set on the edge of the Garraf Natural Park, the house is surrounded by low hills, pine forests, and walking trails that start almost from the doorstep. The area is rich in native wildlife and ideal for hiking or cycling. The village of Olivella itself has a quiet, authentic atmosphere, with a church square, small playground, food truck serving tapas on weekends, and live music on Sundays that all bring the local community together.

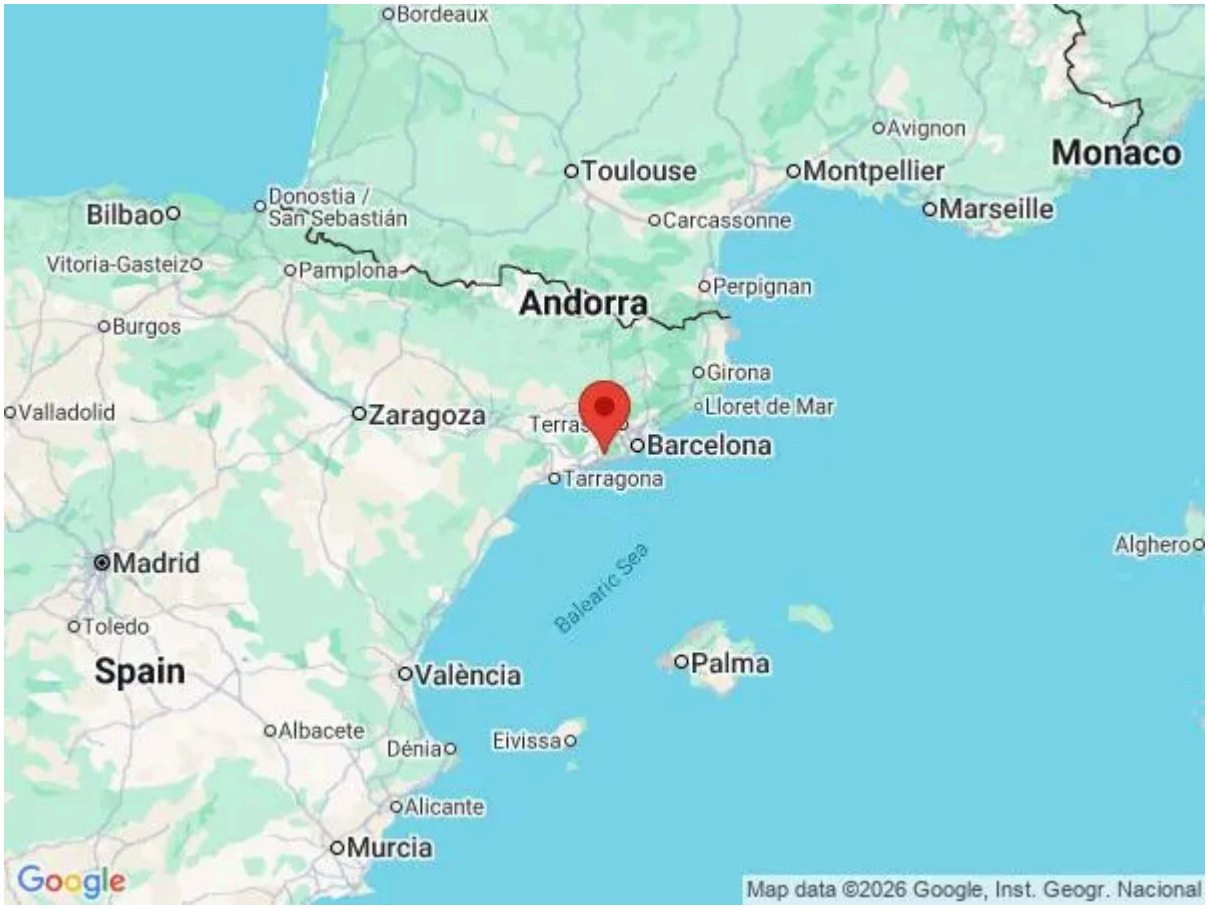

Just 20 minutes away, Sitges is known for its lively seafront promenade, golden beaches, and buzzing restaurant scene. The town's modernist architecture and independent boutiques give it a distinct personality, and its calendar is packed with festivals, film events, and art exhibitions throughout the year.

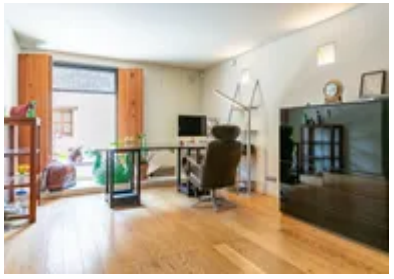

Even closer to home, Sant Pere de Ribes offers practical amenities along with a more local, lived-in feel. Traditional bakeries, weekly markets, and family-run restaurants line the streets of this small town, just a short drive from the villa. It's a useful stop for groceries or a low-key lunch, away from the tourist crowds.

For a complete change of pace, Barcelona is just under an hour away by car. Whether you're drawn to its world-class museums, iconic Gaudí landmarks, or the culinary scene of neighbourhoods like El Born and Gràcia, the city offers countless ways to spend the day. Return in the evening to the quiet of Olivella, having enjoyed the energy of one of Europe's most dynamic urban centres.

What we love

- At Cal Bargallo you get a real taste of local village life whilst being within easy reach of buzzy Sitges and Barcelona
- The peaceful garden views and easy access to Garraf Natural Park trails right from the doorstep are wonderful
- The smart, balanced design makes for a cool, modern interior that still feels rooted in its historic setting

What you should know...

- Please note that the eco-friendly cooling system operates at sunrise and sunset, and relies on the windows and doors being closed to be effective
- This property is in the centre of a small village with a small cafe/food truck on weekends, however the nearest amenities are around 4 km so we recommend hiring a car
- Please note there is currently no swimming pool at this property, however there will be a pool built this winter, ready for Summer 2027!
