Poolside Palm

Region: Palm Springs Sleeps: 6

Overview

City of Palm Springs ID# 1781

Poolside Palm is a celebrated Krisel Alexander mid-century modern home, quietly set within Palm Springs and thoughtfully designed for relaxed desert living. Historic character is paired with modern comfort throughout the residence, where original wood ceilings and curated furnishings create a calm and welcoming atmosphere. The home offers three bedrooms and two bathrooms and comfortably sleeps six, making it well suited to couples, families, or friends seeking an elegant retreat. The open plan living area flows naturally between the kitchen, dining space, and lounge, encouraging easy days spent together. A fully equipped kitchen with modern appliances supports both casual breakfasts and leisurely dinners, while the dining area opens directly to the outdoors. Soft seating, a gas fireplace, and a built-in bar invite slow mornings, quiet reading, or evenings with cocktails after time spent exploring Joshua Tree or the wider Coachella Valley.

Beyond the sliding glass doors, a secluded resort-style backyard unfolds with sweeping mountain views as its backdrop. A large kidney-shaped pool and heated spa are positioned for both refreshing swims and long afternoons of poolside lounging. Outdoor dining and a built-in gas grill make al fresco meals effortless, while manicured lawns and lawn games offer space to unwind during the day. As evening settles, the fire pit and daybed become ideal spots for stargazing under clear desert skies. Each bedroom is designed for comfort and privacy, including a serene primary suite with direct pool access and spa-like bathroom amenities. Additional features include garage parking for one car, cruiser bikes, and optional luxury services. Poolside Palm offers a refined yet effortless Palm Springs escape, where mid-century design, mountain views, and resort-style living come together for an unforgettable stay.
