In the heart of Provence, Le Jardin Tranquille offers an idyllic escape with a beautiful garden, ideally placed for guests looking to immerse themselves in the authentic rhythms of Provençal life, all while enjoying easy access to some of the region's most captivating destinations.

The house is set on a pleasant lane with similarly beautiful houses, just off the road connecting Eygalières and Orgon. A 15-minute walk (no pavement) brings you into the centre of Eygalières, one of the most sought-after villages in Les Alpilles. Here, cobbled lanes wind past stone houses and shaded café terraces, while the lively Friday morning market fills the air with the scent of fresh herbs, cheeses and baked delicacies. Food lovers shouldn't miss a visit to Maison Haché, the village's elegant Michelin-starred restaurant, where seasonal ingredients are celebrated in refined Provençal cuisine.

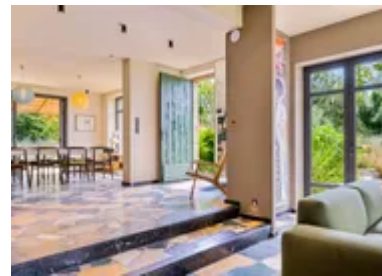

Just a short drive away lies Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (14km), a vibrant town famed for its Roman heritage and as the place where Van Gogh painted some of his most iconic works. Its winding streets are lined with boutiques, art galleries and gourmet eateries, perfect for a relaxed day of exploring.

For outdoor enthusiasts, Les Alpilles offer a stunning playground: hike or cycle along scenic trails, passing through vineyards, olive groves, pine forests and rocky outcrops. Drive to postcard-perfect villages like Les Baux-de-Provence (23km), perched high on a dramatic limestone spur, or Maussane-les-Alpilles (18km) with its pretty square and lively cafés.

When you're ready to venture further afield, the historic cities of Arles and Avignon are both less than 45 minutes by car, each offering a wealth of culture, from Roman amphitheatres to Gothic palaces. Alternatively, enjoy a day in Aix-en-Provence (58km), where leafy boulevards, fountains and art museums await.
