Location & Local Information

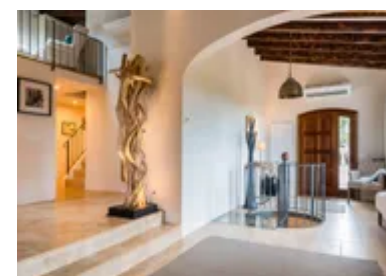

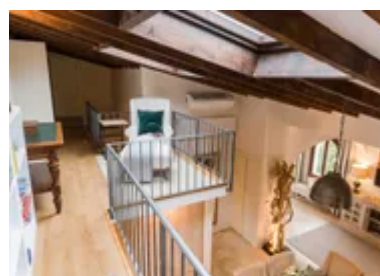

Pinars Verde enjoys a privileged position in the tiny mountain village of Galilea, one of the highest and most picturesque villages in Mallorca. Perched around 400 metres above sea level in the UNESCO listed Serra de Tramuntana, the villa is surrounded by dramatic peaks, pine forests and sweeping views that stretch across the mountains to the distant Mediterranean Sea. The setting feels wonderfully untouched, offering fresh mountain air, silence and spectacular sunsets.

Galilea itself is known for its peaceful charm, traditional stone houses and relaxed way of life. A small church sits at the heart of the village, alongside a handful of welcoming local restaurants where you can enjoy authentic Mallorcan cuisine with panoramic views. The surrounding area is ideal for hiking and cycling, with scenic routes leading through almond groves, olive terraces and forested trails towards Puigpunyent and beyond.

While immersed in nature, you are only a 30-minute drive from Palma and the airport, as well as the elegant marina of Port d'Andratx and the sandy beaches of Camp de Mar. A grocery store is approximately 15 minutes away, ensuring convenience without compromising the tranquillity of this mountain retreat.
