Location & Local Information

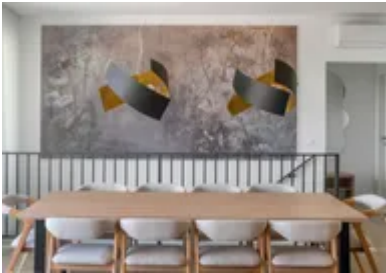

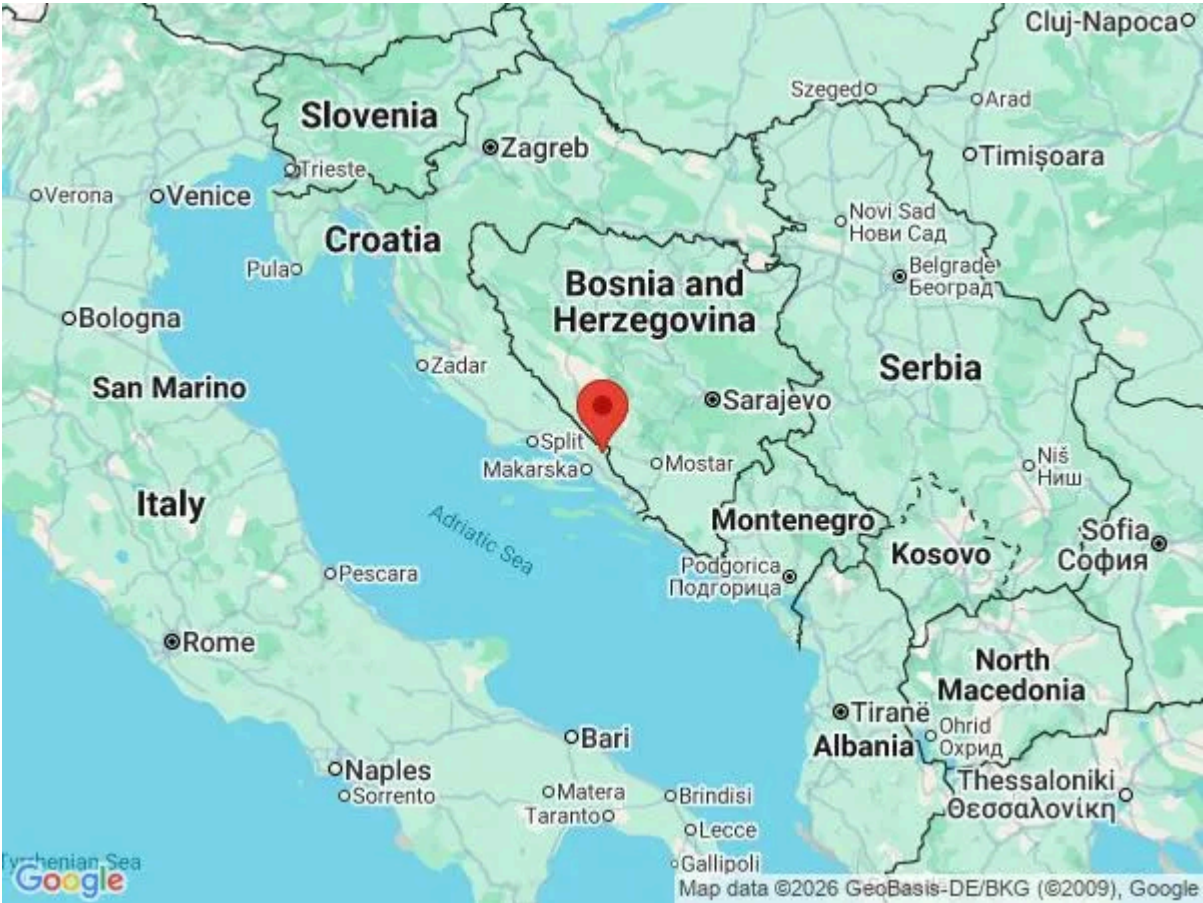

Villa Karstenza occupies a peaceful rural plot in Zmijavci, a small village in Croatia's Split-Dalmatia County set among rolling agricultural land and vineyards, just a few minutes' drive from the historic town of Imotski. This inland Dalmatian setting offers a genuine taste of local life, with village amenities such as a mini market, café and traditional restaurants all close by.

The region is rich in natural attractions: the dramatic Blue Lake and Red Lake near Imotski are striking karst sinkholes perfect for short outings, while the nearby Biokovo Nature Park - part of the UNESCO-designated Geopark Biokovo-Imotski Lakes - offers hiking, panoramas and access to dramatic mountain scenery.

Despite its tranquil atmosphere, Villa Karstenza is still within easy reach of coastal highlights: the beaches of the Makarska Riviera lie about 30-40 minutes away by car, and the main highway via Zagvozd ensures connections to Split, Krka National Park, and other Dalmatian icons.
