Baita Temen

Region: Dolomites Sleeps: 3

Overview

In the beautiful Val Algone, Baita Temen stands as a charming ode to alpine simplicity. Crafted entirely from larch wood, this home has been designed to evoke the warmth and authenticity of traditional mountain shelters. Surrounded by meadows and woodland, this eco-conscious cabin offers a rare kind of getaway rooted in the slow rhythm of nature.

Built with respect for the land and the traditions of the region, Baita Temen follows eco-building principles. Natural materials, renewable energy solutions and low-impact construction ensure it blends into its surroundings while offering a high standard of comfort. The interiors are warm and bright, with a living space designed to welcome the sun throughout the day. A modern kitchen with a granite island makes mealtimes easy while a wooden canopy nook invites quiet moments of reading or rest (and can serve as an additional single bed).

The cabin also features a double bedroom with a king-size bed and TV, and a modern bathroom complete with a walk-in shower and an infrared sauna, ideal for easing tired muscles after a long day exploring the trails.

Baita Temen is located in Val Algone, a hidden valley within the Adamello Brenta Natural Geopark, in the foot of the Southern Brenta Dolomites UNESCO World Heritage Site. At 900 metres above sea level, this corner of Trentino–Alto Adige feels worlds away, where deer roam freely and the stars shine without interruption. Once the site of historic hydroelectric works, the valley now offers only scattered homes and the raw beauty of alpine life.

Whether you're grilling over the wood-fired barbecue, lounging in a deck chair or simply watching the clouds drift across the peaks, Baita Temen invites you to reconnect with nature and simplicity.

Location & Local Information

In the beautiful Val Algone and embraced by the striking peaks of the Brenta Dolomites, Baita Temen is located in the heart of the Adamello Brenta Natural Park. Sitting at roughly 900 metres above sea level, this rustic hideaway is one of only three traditional cabins set among meadows, forested slopes and the gentle flow of the Algone stream. With zero light pollution, the night skies are dazzling - perfect for stargazing and reconnecting with nature in its purest form.

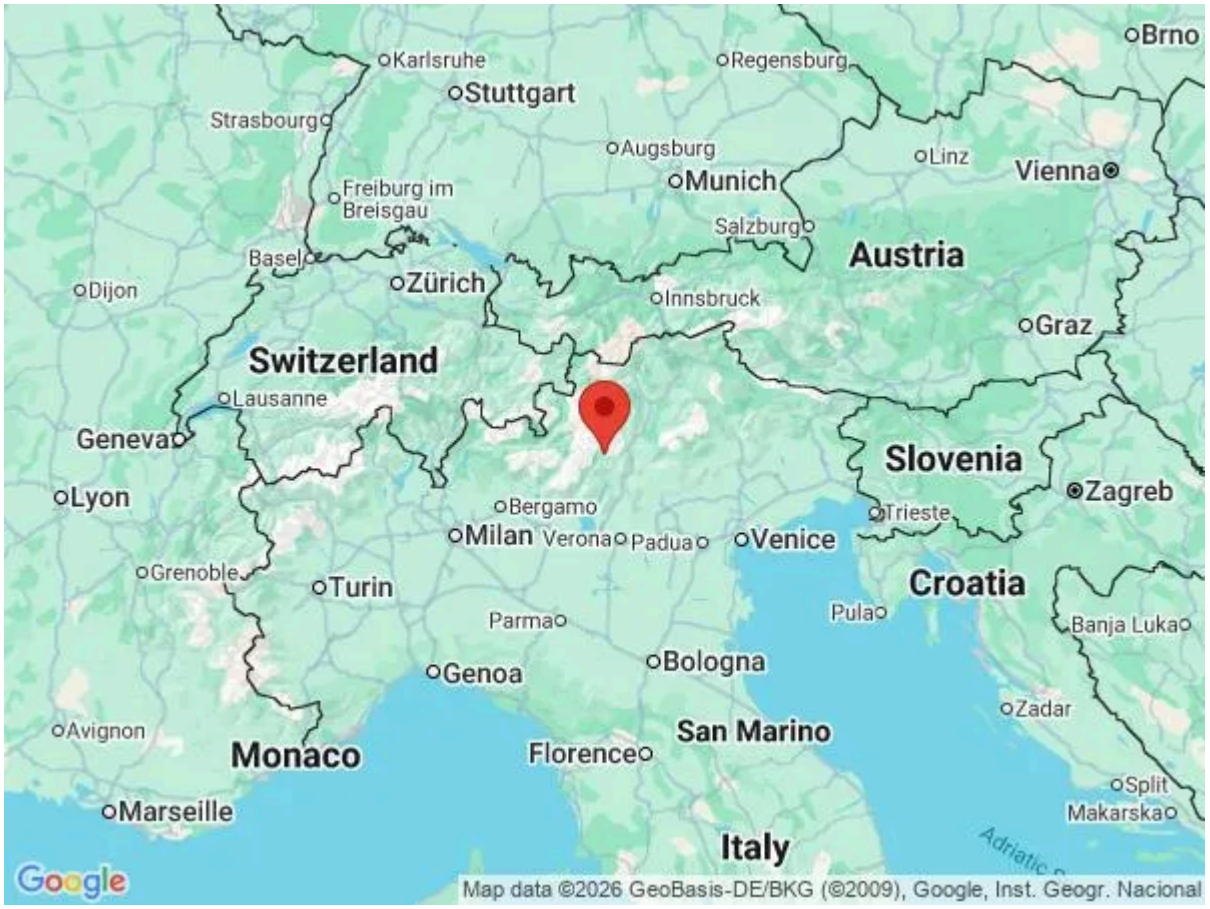

Accessible via the road through the valley, Baita Temen is ideally placed for those seeking a rural base for outdoor pursuits. Thanks to the valley's regulated entry, there is less traffic than many Alpine regions. A couple of dining options (typically open May to September) are available around 5km away, while other restaurants and amenities are a 20-minute drive in the towns of Stenico and Ponte Arche.

Positioned at the foot of the UNESCO-listed Brenta Dolomites, the area is a haven for summer hiking, mountain biking and scenic walks (bike rentals from Ponte Arche can even be delivered to your door). In the colder months, ski resorts such as Madonna di Campiglio and Paganella are reachable within an hour.

The region's rich cultural heritage adds further appeal. Explore the dramatic Stenico Castle (11km) or the prehistoric stilt house site at Fiavé (22km), also recognised by UNESCO. Traditional food festivals, local farms, wineries and festive markets offer authentic glimpses into the customs and flavours of Trentino.
