Tucked among the colourful streets of Sitges' Old Town, Calle Mayor offers a stay that brims with character, sunshine, and local flair. Behind grand timber doors and intricate tiled thresholds, this four-storey townhouse unfolds as a vibrant celebration of Mediterranean style, where original period details meet thoughtful modern touches at every turn.

Step inside and you're greeted by soaring ceilings, shuttered windows, and a tiled hallway that sets the tone for the rest of the home. The ground floor opens into a reception room with a warm dining area and bar, flowing through to a leafy courtyard, perfect for sipping coffee as the town stirs around you. A separate living room, complete with cosy sofas and a fireplace, creates a haven for quiet evenings in.

Across the first and second floors, four beautifully appointed bedrooms balance energy and tranquillity. At the front of the house, suites overlook the lively Calle Mayor, with Juliet balconies and lounge areas that invite you to soak up the sights and sounds below. To the rear, calmer double rooms provide a retreat from the buzz, with private bathrooms and soft lighting throughout. Each space is air conditioned, elegantly furnished, and designed to make guests feel immediately at ease.

On the top floor, an open-plan lounge takes centre stage with vibrant artwork, sofa beds, and a large TV, perfect for a lazy morning or laid-back film night. Double doors open to a sunlit terrace, but it's the rooftop above that steals the show. Accessed by a spiral staircase, the crowning terrace reveals 360-degree views across Sitges, from the iconic church bell tower to the shimmering blue of the Mediterranean.

With sun loungers, a dining area, and room to breathe, this rooftop feels like a private slice of the town's soul. Calle Mayor places you right in the heart of Sitges, just three minutes from the beach and five from the train station. Step out for tapas, explore the boutiques, or simply soak up the laid-back magic of this seaside gem, your townhouse sanctuary awaits.

The house sits along one of the town's most iconic pedestrian streets, lined with flower-draped balconies, boutique stores, local galleries, and tapas bars that spill out onto sunny terraces.

From the moment you step outside, you're immersed in the energy of this historic coastal town. Wander just three minutes and you'll reach Sitges' golden beaches, where soft sand meets the clear waters of the Mediterranean. The palm-lined promenade is ideal for morning strolls or an early evening gelato, while the iconic Church of Sant Bartomeu stands proudly above it all, offering one of the most photographed views in the region.

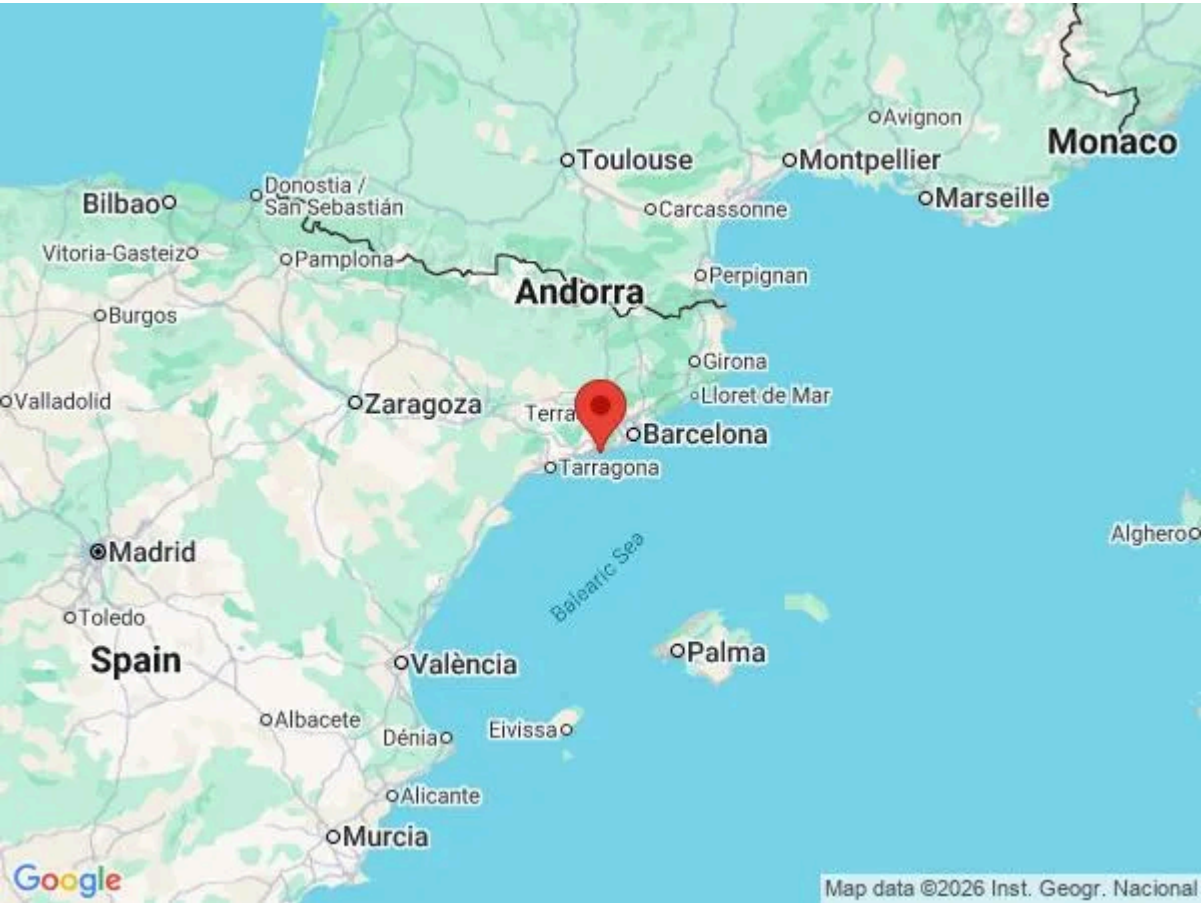

Sitges is well known for its inclusive, artistic spirit and bohemian charm. The area is dotted with art deco architecture, stylish bars, and intimate galleries, while events and festivals give the town a lively rhythm year-round. Stop by the Cau Ferrat Museum for a dose of Catalan modernism, or sip vermouth in a shaded square surrounded by palm trees.

The townhouse is a short walk from the train station, making day trips into Barcelona remarkably easy. Trains run regularly and take under 40 minutes to reach the city centre, allowing you to explore world-class museums, shopping, and landmarks, then return to the peace of Sitges by nightfall.
