Overview

Please note that this property is available for monthly rentals only - please enquire for more information

In the rolling hills of Catalonia's prestigious Penedès wine region, Masia Monte Sereno rises with stately elegance against the backdrop of Montserrat's jagged peaks. Built in 1924 and meticulously restored, this historic Catalan mansion seamlessly weaves classic architecture with modern-day ease, creating a countryside escape that feels both timeless and elevated.

Set across three spacious levels, the interiors are bathed in light. Arched doorways and high ceilings echo the property's heritage, while oak floors, neutral hues and elegant lighting ground it firmly in the present. The open-plan living areas invite slow afternoons and lively gatherings alike, and the professional-grade kitchen is designed for sharing meals, and long, wine-fuelled evenings. Six double bedrooms, each with its own bathroom, offer comfort and privacy for larger groups. The master suite enjoys far-reaching valley views and includes a dressing room and serene en-suite, while a hidden chill-out room in the tower promises a unique hideaway with panoramic vistas.

Step outside to find a 20-metre pool surrounded by lush lawns and shaded terraces. An independent entertainment pavilion houses an indoor kitchen, bar, and social dining space, perfect for celebratory meals or relaxed aperitifs. Wander further and you'll find fruit trees, raised vegetable beds, and a working winery, where guests can try their hand at producing their own cava or wine.

Whether hosting a retreat, marking a special occasion, or simply gathering with loved ones, Masia Monte Sereno offers an extraordinary setting. The estate sits in peaceful seclusion, yet is about 30 minutes from the beaches of Sitges, 15 minutes from Vilafranca del Penedès, and around an hour from the vibrant streets of Barcelona.

Location & Local Information

Masia Monte Sereno is nestled deep within the Penedès wine region, one of Spain's oldest and most celebrated viticultural landscapes. Framed by olive groves, vineyards and the jagged silhouette of Montserrat in the distance, the estate enjoys a tranquil setting that feels far from it all, yet remains close to some of Catalonia's most sought-after destinations.

From the property, the charming town of Vilafranca del Penedès is around 15 minutes by car. Known for its cobbled streets, Gothic architecture, and weekly farmers' market, it's a wonderful place to soak up local life. The town is also the heart of Catalonia's cava production, offering ample opportunities to tour wine cellars and sample sparkling vintages directly from the source.

Within 30 minutes, you can reach the coastal resort town of Sitges. Famous for its lively promenade, golden beaches, and art deco villas, Sitges offers a delightful contrast to the countryside, blending seaside relaxation with boutique shopping and vibrant dining.

For a taste of Catalan heritage, visit the sacred mountain of Montserrat, home to a Benedictine monastery and hiking trails that offer spectacular views over the entire region. You're also well placed for exploring lesser-known gems: sleepy hilltop villages, rustic bodegas, and walking trails that wind through wild countryside.

Despite its rural feel, Masia Monte Sereno only about an hour from Barcelona by car. That means easy day trips to the capital's cultural landmarks, world-class museums, and culinary scene, before retreating to the stillness of your private estate.
