Overview

Villa Elina is a contemporary three-bedroom villa in southern Sardinia, offering an inviting base for up to six guests close to the coast at Villasimius. With Campus Beach approximately 450m away, days by the sea are easy to arrange, while the villa's private pool and furnished garden provide plenty of space to relax at home.

Inside, the villa is arranged across two levels and combines bright, comfortable living spaces with a practical layout for families or groups of friends. The main living area features sofa seating and a flat-screen TV, alongside a dining space and an equipped kitchen with an induction hob, microwave, fridge, dishwasher, kettle, toaster and coffee machine. A separate bathroom with shower also serves this level.

The three double bedrooms are located on the lower level, each with its own private bathroom with shower, giving every guest a good degree of privacy. Air conditioning and heating are available, while useful facilities including Wi-Fi and a washing machine make longer stays particularly convenient.

Outside, Villa Elina is well set up for enjoying Sardinia's warm climate. The private swimming pool is complemented by a solarium with sun loungers and parasols, while the shaded porch offers a comfortable spot for leisurely meals or drinks out of the midday sun. A barbecue area and two outdoor showers add to the practical outdoor facilities, and the villa also benefits from three private uncovered parking spaces.

What we love

- Being able to walk to Scoglio di Peppino beach along a quiet internal road, leaving the car behind.
- The upstairs terrace views where the blue of the sea meets the green of the surrounding hills.
- A private garden and pool that feel naturally integrated into the landscape, perfect for long, relaxed days outdoors.

What you should know...

- One of the bedrooms features a French bed, which may be better suited to one adult or two children.
- Two of the upstairs bedrooms share an external bathroom rather than having en-suite facilities.
- The villa is arranged over two levels, so there are internal stairs between the living and sleeping areas.
