Region: Sardinia Sleeps: 10

Overview

A gentle approach through a private residential enclave leads to Villa Mino, a spacious retreat where garden greenery, wide terraces and distant sea views shape the rhythm of daily life. Set just 500 metres from the coast in Castiadas, the villa is designed for groups who value privacy, outdoor living and a calm connection to their surroundings.

The layout unfolds over two levels, with the ground floor dedicated almost entirely to rest. Here, four bedrooms open directly onto the garden through windows or French doors, allowing light and greenery to flow inside. The sleeping arrangements are generous and flexible, with a double bedroom featuring a third bed and an en-suite bathroom with both shower and bathtub, a second double bedroom with en-suite shower room, another double bedroom with an en-suite shower room located just outside, and a twin bedroom with separate beds and its own en-suite shower. A service bathroom on this level adds further convenience, making this floor particularly well suited to large families or groups travelling together.

Upstairs, the villa opens into its social heart. Two comfortable living areas provide space to relax at different moments of the day, while the dining area is arranged for long meals shared around the table. The fully equipped kitchen sits close by, practical and well organised for everyday cooking or more elaborate gatherings. A single bedroom with an en-suite shower room completes this level, offering additional flexibility for guests.

Outside, Villa Mino truly comes into its own. The garden wraps around the property, creating a sense of seclusion, while porticoes and terraces extend the living spaces outdoors. Furnished for comfort, these areas are ideal for sunset aperitifs, with the sea visible on the horizon. The private swimming pool, around 1.50 metres deep throughout, is set beside a solarium with sun loungers, and a barbecue area invites relaxed outdoor dining. With its thoughtful layout and generous outdoor spaces, Villa Mino offers an easy, unhurried setting for shared holidays by the sea.

Location & Local Information

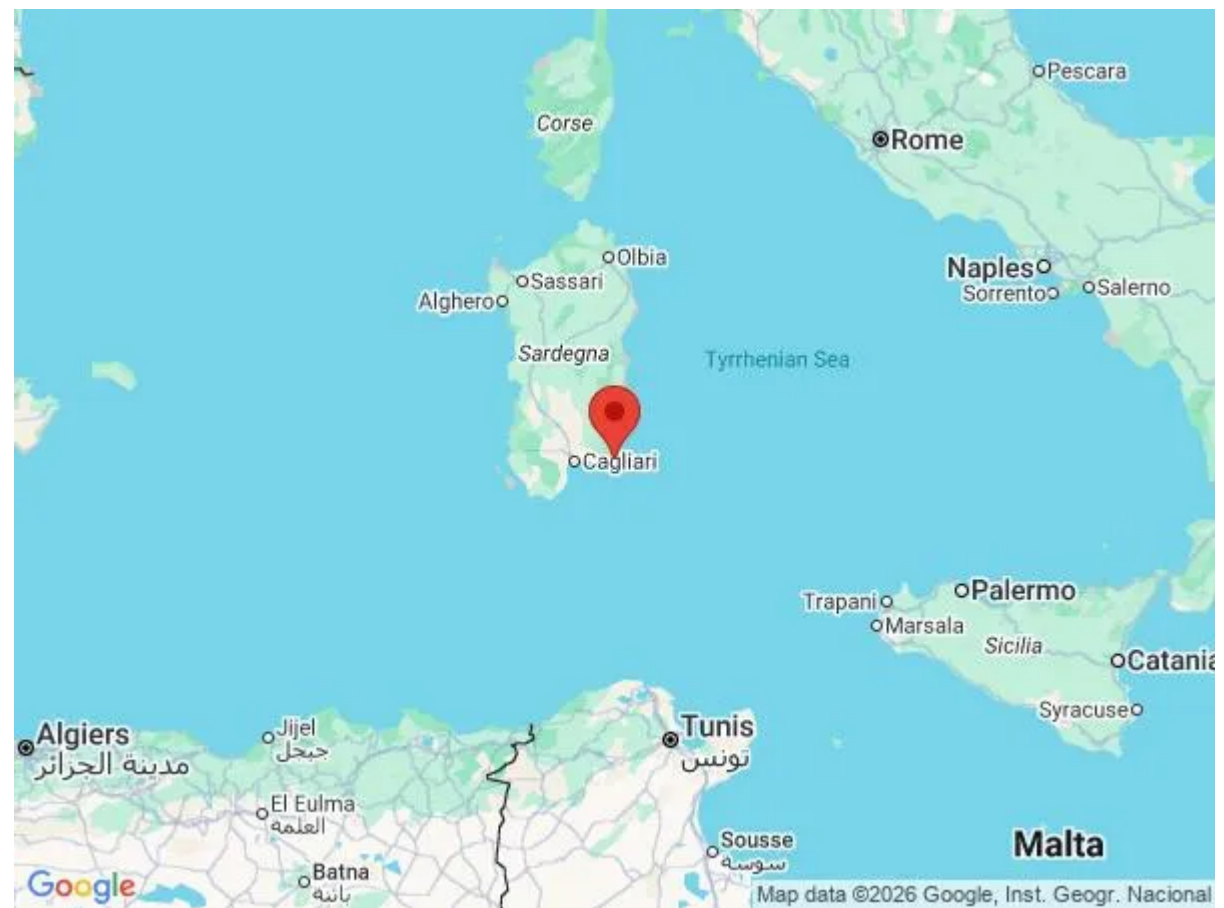

Villa Mino is located in Castiadas, a quietly sought-after area on Sardinia's south-eastern coast known for its clear waters, open landscapes and peaceful atmosphere. This part of the island remains refreshingly low-key, where nature plays a central role and the coastline feels open and spacious rather than built up.

The villa sits within a private condominium of similar high-quality properties, offering both discretion and security. Just 500 metres away, the sea invites early morning swims and evening walks, with beaches in the area known for their pale sand, smooth rock formations and shallow, transparent waters. The surrounding coastline offers a variety of spots, from wide bays to smaller coves, each shaped by the natural contours of the land.

Castiadas has a strong rural heritage, once shaped by agriculture and small settlements, traces of which are still visible in the landscape today. This history gives the area a grounded, authentic feel that contrasts gently with the comfort of modern holiday living. Nearby villages provide access to everyday amenities, including local shops, bakeries and restaurants serving traditional Sardinian cuisine.

A short drive opens up further exploration, from additional beaches along the coast to inland areas where walking trails wind through Mediterranean scrub and low hills. The nearby Capo Carbonara Marine Area protects much of the surrounding sea, contributing to excellent water quality and making snorkelling and boat trips particularly rewarding.

Villa Mino's location allows guests to enjoy Sardinia at a relaxed pace, combining proximity to the sea with a setting that feels calm, natural and removed from the crowds.
