Overview

A sense of calm settles in as you arrive at Villa Lisina, where pale stone, soft greenery and open terraces set the scene just 500 metres from the sea. Set within a discreet residential enclave in Castiadas, the villa is designed for relaxed living, with spaces that flow easily from indoors to out and views that gently draw your eye towards the horizon.

The ground floor is devoted to shared living, arranged around a generous, light-filled space that immediately feels welcoming. Comfortable seating and a flat-screen TV create a natural place to unwind, while the kitchenette, equipped with an induction hob, is neatly integrated for effortless holiday cooking. Nearby, the dining area invites long, unhurried meals together. This level also includes a double bedroom and a well-appointed shower room, offering flexibility for guests who prefer ground-floor accommodation.

Upstairs, the villa is dedicated entirely to rest. Four bedrooms are arranged across the first floor, including three doubles and a single room with an extra bed, making the layout ideal for families or mixed groups. Every room enjoys natural light through windows or French doors opening onto the garden. The master bedroom stands out, featuring an en-suite bathroom and a furnished terrace where sea views appear softly on the horizon, particularly beautiful as the light fades in the evening.

Outside, the villa is immersed in a carefully tended garden that feels private and serene. A furnished portico extends the living space outdoors, creating a shaded setting for breakfasts, lazy afternoons or evening aperitifs. The infinity pool is a striking focal point, bordered by a solarium with sun loungers and complemented by a functional barbecue area for relaxed outdoor dining. With air conditioning and heating throughout, Villa Lisina offers a comfortable and well-balanced retreat where days unfold naturally between garden, pool and sea.

Location & Local Information

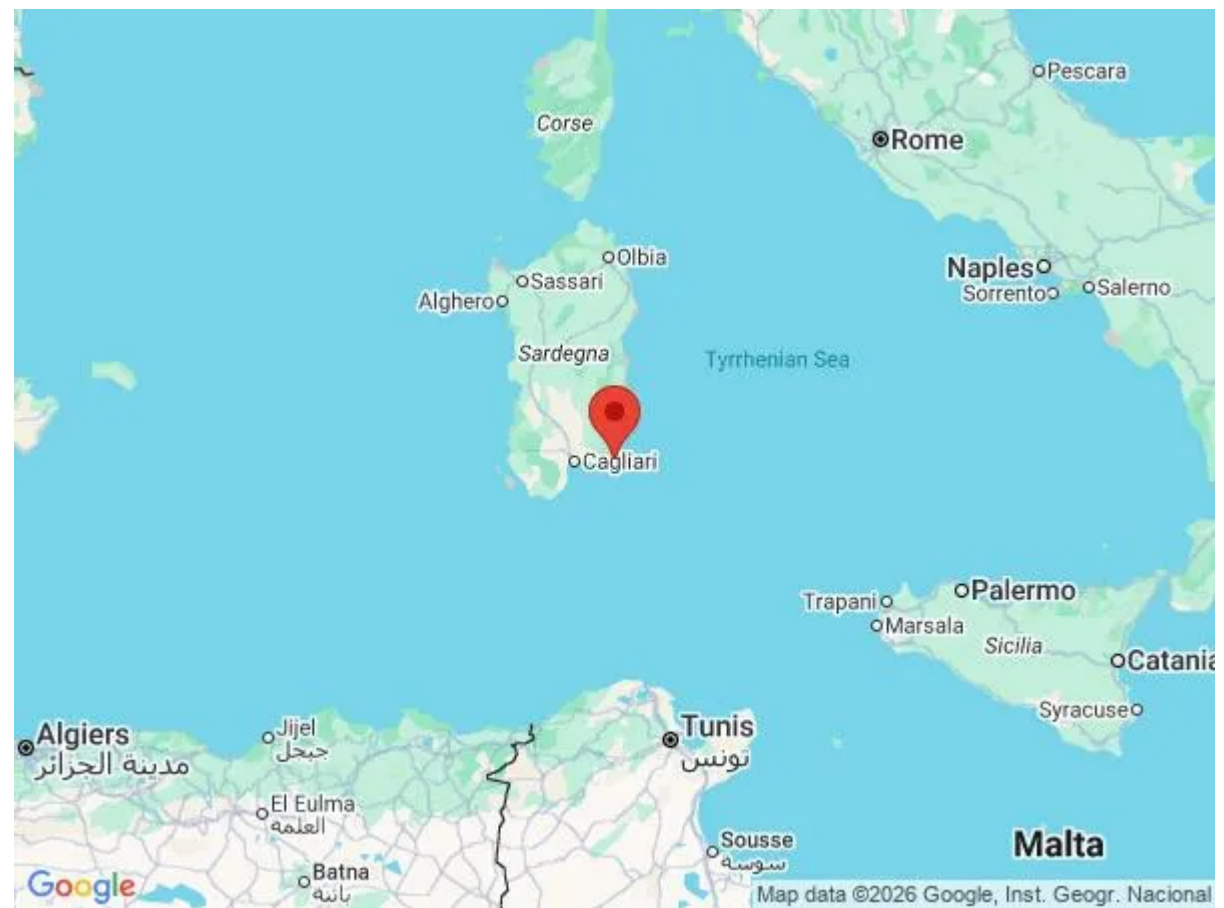

Villa Lisina is located in Castiadas, a sought-after yet understated destination on Sardinia's south-eastern coast. This area is known for its open landscapes, clear waters and slower pace, where beaches remain spacious and nature plays a central role in everyday life.

Just a short walk from the villa, the coastline offers easy access to the sea, allowing spontaneous swims, early morning dips or evening strolls without planning around transport. Beaches in this area are characterised by pale sand, smooth rock formations and shallow, transparent waters, making them particularly inviting for relaxed beach days.

Castiadas has a strong connection to Sardinia's rural past, once shaped by farming and agricultural communities. Traces of this heritage remain visible in the surrounding countryside, lending the area an authentic feel that contrasts gently with the comfort of its modern villas. Nearby villages provide essential amenities, including food shops, bakeries and restaurants serving traditional Sardinian dishes prepared with local ingredients.

A little further along the coast, a succession of beaches and coves invites exploration, each offering a different character and perspective on the landscape. Inland routes lead through Mediterranean scrub and low hills, ideal for gentle walks and scenic drives. The nearby Capo Carbonara Marine Area helps preserve the clarity of the sea, making snorkelling and boat excursions particularly rewarding.

Villa Lisina's location allows guests to enjoy the quieter side of Sardinia while remaining close to the highlights of the south-east coast, balancing tranquillity with easy access to sea and local life.

What we love

- The infinity pool and terraces create a beautiful setting for sunset aperitifs, with soft sea views that gently frame the end of each day.
- The bedroom layout is particularly well suited to families and small groups, offering a thoughtful balance of shared space and privacy across both floors.
- Being able to walk to the sea while returning to a private garden and pool makes daily life here feel effortless and unhurried.
- The nearest equipped beach to the villa is Scoglio di Peppino, located approximately 500 metres away—just over a 4-minute walk.

What you should know...
