Overview

Morning light filters through wide glass doors as the sound of the ocean drifts up from the dunes below. Melokuhle House sits within the coastal beauty of Keurbooms, framed by fynbos and sweeping sea views, offering an easy rhythm that invites you to slow down from the moment you arrive.

Step inside and the interiors feel fresh and considered. Newly renovated and thoughtfully furnished, the open plan living space is airy and welcoming. A contemporary kitchen with sleek cabinetry and generous island makes cooking a pleasure, whether it is a quick breakfast before the beach or a long, relaxed supper with friends. The dining table anchors the space, designed for shared meals and unhurried conversation, while the comfortable lounge is arranged for evenings spent chatting, reading or watching a favourite film.

Large sliding doors draw the outside in. The main living area flows onto a front patio where sea views stretch beyond the greenery, and the steady hush of waves becomes the soundtrack to your stay. To the rear, a sheltered terrace with a built-in barbecue sets the scene for alfresco feasts, with plenty of space to linger long after sunset.

On the ground floor, a spacious ensuite bedroom opens directly onto the deck, offering privacy and easy access to the garden. Upstairs, two beautifully styled bedrooms each lead onto balconies with expansive ocean views. A cosy TV lounge with a sleeper couch provides an additional nook for children or quiet evenings.

Guests staying at Melokuhle House enjoy access to a communal pool and a direct pathway to the golden sands of Keurbooms Beach. For families or friends seeking a refined coastal escape, Melokuhle House promises sea air, open horizons and days shaped entirely by you.

Location & Local Information

Melokuhle House is tucked within a private estate in Keurbooms, a small coastal enclave just outside Plettenberg Bay along South Africa's celebrated Garden Route. This stretch of coastline is known for its wide beaches, indigenous fynbos and unspoilt natural scenery, where ocean, river and forest meet in striking harmony.

A private pathway from the estate leads directly to Keurbooms Beach, a long sweep of golden sand backed by dunes and rolling greenery. Early mornings are perfect for long walks as dolphins arc through the surf and seabirds circle overhead. The beach is ideal for surfing or simply stretching out with a book, while the nearby Keurbooms River offers opportunities for kayaking, boating and fishing in calmer waters.

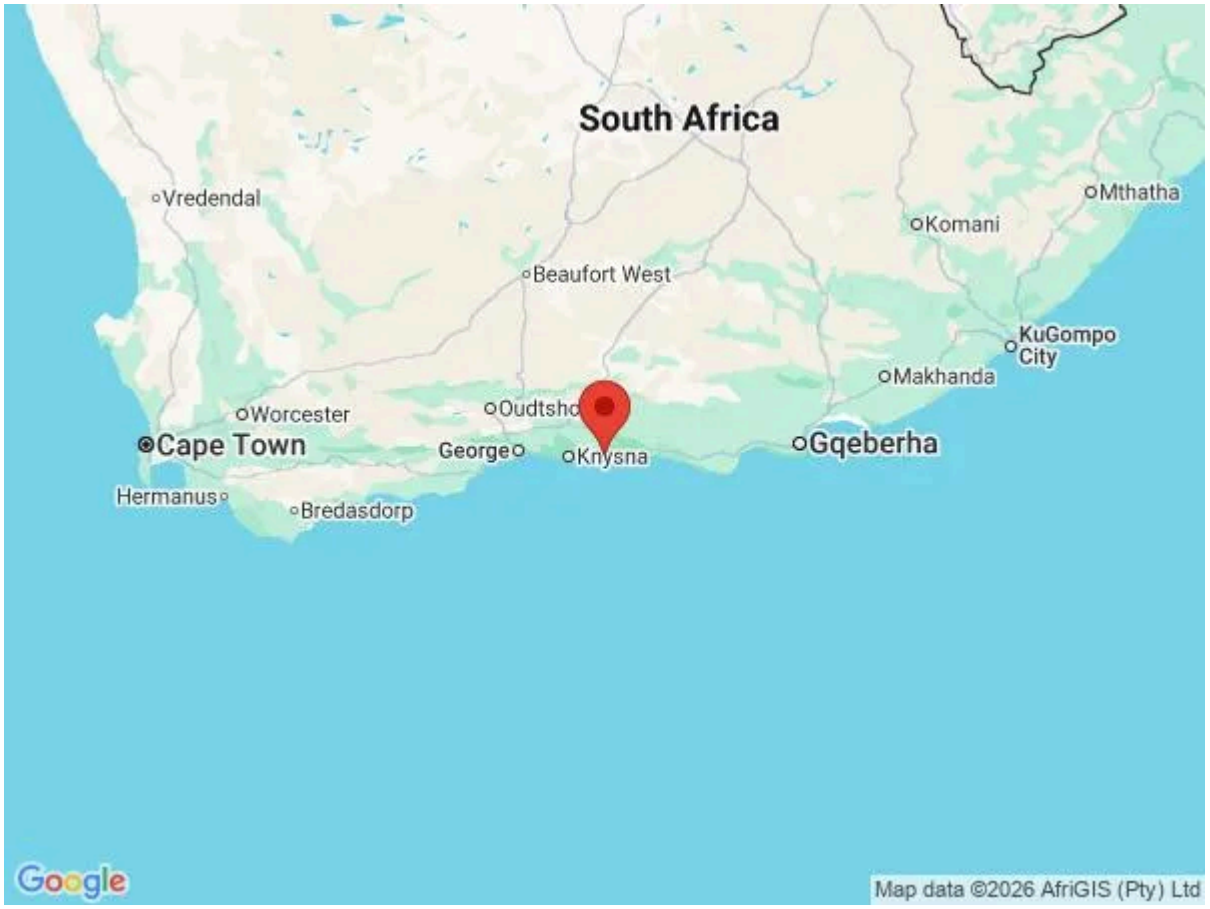

Just a short drive away, Plettenberg Bay provides a lively contrast with its selection of cafés, boutique shops and excellent restaurants. Fresh seafood, local wines and relaxed beachside dining define the culinary scene. Nature lovers are well placed to explore Robberg Nature Reserve, where dramatic coastal trails reveal panoramic views and seasonal whale sightings. Tsitsikamma National Park, with its ancient forests and suspension bridges, is also within easy reach for adventurous day trips.

The Garden Route is renowned for its outdoor pursuits. Guests can enjoy hiking, mountain biking, horse riding and marine safaris, or spend time discovering nearby wildlife sanctuaries. Local markets showcase regional produce and crafts, adding a cultural dimension to your stay.

Keurbooms itself remains wonderfully low key, offering a sense of space and calm that is increasingly rare. Here, life follows the tide and the light, creating a setting that feels both restorative and deeply connected to nature.
