This part of the island is known for its scenic landscapes and authentic atmosphere, making it particularly appealing for those looking to step away from the busier coastal resorts.

The nearby village provides a glimpse of local life, with a couple of cafés and restaurants that reflect the area's understated charm. The surrounding countryside is ideal for enjoying Ibiza's natural beauty, whether exploring quiet country roads or simply appreciating the open views and fresh air.

The lively town of Sant Antoni de Portmany is within easy reach, providing a wider choice of restaurants, cafés and waterfront spots to enjoy.
