

Villa Kandia

Region: Sicily Sleeps: 8

Overview

Villa Kandia is a beautifully restored Sicilian villa set within the rolling countryside near Noto, offering a peaceful retreat surrounded by olive trees and open landscapes. Blending traditional character with contemporary comfort, this elegant home provides a relaxed base for families or friends looking to experience the charm, culture and coastline of south-eastern Sicily.

The interiors reflect the villa's heritage while incorporating modern design elements that enhance both comfort and style. Bright living spaces are filled with natural light, creating a calm and welcoming atmosphere throughout. The open-plan layout encourages easy living, with a well-equipped kitchen and dining area that make it simple to enjoy long, leisurely meals together using the region's excellent local produce.

The bedrooms are thoughtfully arranged to provide both comfort and privacy, making the villa well suited to groups travelling together. Each space has been designed with simplicity and relaxation in mind, offering restful surroundings after days spent exploring nearby towns or enjoying the coast.

Outside, Villa Kandia is surrounded by a generous garden that embraces the natural beauty of the Sicilian countryside. The private swimming pool is positioned to take full advantage of the peaceful setting, with sun loungers and shaded areas inviting guests to unwind throughout the day. A covered terrace provides the perfect spot for alfresco dining, while the surrounding landscape creates a sense of space and tranquillity.

Located close to the baroque town of Noto and within easy reach of the coast, Villa Kandia offers an ideal balance of rural seclusion and access to some of Sicily's most celebrated cultural and natural highlights.

Location & Local Information

Villa Kandia is set in the beautiful countryside near Noto, one of Sicily's most celebrated baroque towns and part of the UNESCO-listed Val di Noto. Surrounded by open landscapes, olive groves and dry stone walls, the villa offers a peaceful rural setting while still being within easy reach of the region's cultural highlights and coastline.

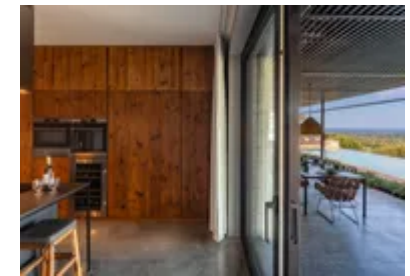

The historic centre of Noto is just a short drive away and is known for its striking honey-coloured architecture, elegant piazzas and impressive churches. Visitors can wander through its atmospheric streets, stopping at cafés and restaurants to enjoy traditional Sicilian dishes, local wines and the region's famous pastries. The surrounding area is also rich in culture, with nearby towns such as Modica, Ragusa and Scicli offering further opportunities to explore baroque architecture and authentic Sicilian life.

For days by the sea, the beaches along the south-eastern coast are within easy driving distance. Long stretches of golden sand and clear Mediterranean waters make this area ideal for swimming, sunbathing and relaxed seaside dining. Nature lovers can also explore the nearby Vendicari Nature Reserve, known for its unspoilt beaches, walking trails and birdlife.

With its combination of countryside tranquillity, historic towns and coastal beauty, Villa Kandia is perfectly positioned for discovering the diverse landscapes and cultural richness of south-eastern Sicily.

What we love

- The unique layout across two self-contained floors with their own kitchen areas makes Villa Kandia ideal for groups travelling together while still enjoying their own space.
- Two private infinity pools offer a rare and luxurious feature, allowing guests to enjoy different outdoor areas and views.
- A peaceful setting close to Noto combines rural tranquillity with easy access to one of Sicily's most beautiful baroque towns.

What you should know...

- The villa is arranged across two independent floors connected by external stairs, rather than an entirely internal layout. Therefore, the property may not be suitable for family groups with younger children
- As Villa Kandia is set in the countryside, so a car is essential for reaching towns, beaches and amenities.
- The villa features multiple outdoor areas and terraces, which may require supervision for younger children.
