Framed by panoramic bay and mountain views, the villa combines clean architectural lines with calm, minimalist interiors, creating a stylish base for families or friends.

The ground floor hosts a bright open-plan living, dining and kitchen space beneath a striking double-height ceiling. The first floor is devoted to a spacious master suite of approximately forty square metres, complete with a king-size bed, en-suite shower room, dressing room and private balcony. A freestanding Jacuzzi bath is positioned to enjoy sweeping coastal views. The top floor offers two further en-suite bedrooms, both with dressing areas and access to a full-width roof terrace overlooking Kalkan's harbour.

Location & Local Information

Kalkan is a picturesque harbour town on Turkey's southwest Mediterranean coast, set between the Taurus Mountains and the turquoise waters of the Lycian Sea. Once a quiet fishing village, it has evolved into an elegant yet relaxed destination known for its whitewashed houses, bougainvillaea-draped balconies, and atmospheric old town streets. Despite its growth in popularity, Kalkan has retained a boutique feel, with low-rise buildings cascading down the hillside toward the sea and strict planning regulations preserving its charm.

The old town is the heart of Kalkan, a maze of narrow cobbled lanes filled with independent boutiques, artisan shops, and an impressive array of rooftop restaurants. Dining is a highlight here; many restaurants are family-run and serve freshly prepared Turkish meze, grilled seafood, and regional specialities under the stars. The small marina and harbour area provide a scenic focal point, where traditional gulets and day boats depart for leisurely cruises along the coast.

Kalkan is particularly celebrated for its beach clubs and access to some of Turkey's most beautiful beaches. While the town itself has a small pebble beach, the famous Kaputaş Beach, with its dramatic gorge setting and vivid blue waters, is just a short drive away. Patara Beach, one of the longest sandy beaches in the Mediterranean and part of a protected national park, offers a wild and unspoilt alternative. The surrounding region is rich in history, with ancient Lycian ruins, including Xanthos, Letoon, and Tlos, scattered throughout the landscape.

What we love

- The Palm Beach Club is located just below the villa, approximately a two-minute walk away, offering convenient access to waterfront dining, swimming and water sports.
- The centre of Kalkan can be reached via a scenic coastal path in around 10–12 minutes, combining a sense of seclusion with easy access to local amenities.

What you should know...

- Kömürlük is elevated and charming, however, like much of Kalkan, there may be hills/steps when walking to and from town or beach clubs.
- The swimming pool is unfenced so children should be supervised at all times
