Le Marche is one of Italy's most rewarding holiday destinations, offering a quieter alternative to Tuscany and Umbria while still delivering beautiful scenery, culture and excellent food. Set between the Adriatic coast and the Sibillini Mountains, the region is known for its rolling hills, medieval hilltop towns, vineyards, olive groves and unspoilt countryside. From Villa Colle Verde, guests can enjoy a peaceful rural setting while remaining within reach of historic villages, local markets and traditional restaurants serving regional specialities such as handmade pasta, truffles, cured meats and Verdicchio wine. The area is ideal for slow, authentic travel, with opportunities for walking, cycling, wine tasting and exploring charming towns such as Urbino, Macerata and Ascoli Piceno. Beaches along the Adriatic are also accessible for day trips.
