Villa Lajares Dos

Region: Fuerteventura Sleeps: 4

Overview

Villa Lajares Dos is a welcoming two-bedroom villa with a private pool, located in the village of Lajares in northern Fuerteventura. Designed with families in mind, the villa offers comfortable accommodation, a fully equipped kitchen and a relaxed living space ideal for spending time together. Outside, a private terrace with sun loungers, dining area and barbecue provides space for al fresco meals, while the pool offers a refreshing place to unwind after a day out exploring the island.

Lajares is well positioned for discovering the best of northern Fuerteventura. Within a short drive, families can reach the sandy beaches of El Cotillo, known for its sheltered lagoons, and the expansive dunes and beaches of Corralejo. The area is popular for surfing, cycling and walking, with volcanic landscapes and marked trails to explore.

The village itself has a laid-back atmosphere, with cafés, restaurants, small shops and a weekly market all within easy reach. Its central location makes it simple to explore both the north coast and inland attractions, while still returning to a peaceful base at the end of the day. Villa Lajares Dos provides a practical and comfortable setting for a family holiday in Fuerteventura.

Location & Local Information

Villa Lajares Dos is set in the heart of Lajares, a small inland village in northern Fuerteventura known for its relaxed atmosphere, artisan culture and laid-back lifestyle - perfect for families wanting both tranquillity and easy access to island highlights. Lajares has a selection of local cafés, restaurants, surf shops and a supermarket, so everyday needs are conveniently close at hand. The village is popular with visitors and locals alike, and its vibe reflects a blend of traditional Canarian life and creative energy.

Thanks to its central location, Lajares makes an excellent base for exploring the north of Fuerteventura. The beautiful beaches of El Cotillo, with sheltered lagoons ideal for kids, are a short drive away, while the lively town and sandy stretches of Corralejo - including the impressive sand dunes of Corralejo Natural Park - are also easily reachable by car. These spots offer watersports, family-friendly beaches, nature walks, plenty of dining options and also the ferry port taking you to Lanzarote.

Outdoor enthusiasts will enjoy nearby hiking and cycling opportunities, volcanic landscapes, and scenic viewpoints, making day trips varied and rewarding for all ages. Whether it's beach days, nature exploration or sampling local cuisine, Villa Lajares Dos puts families within easy reach of the best Fuerteventura has to offer.
