Villa Lajares Tres

Region: Fuerteventura Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Lajares Tres is a three-bedroom villa with a private pool, located in the village of Lajares in northern Fuerteventura. Designed with families in mind, the villa offers comfortable accommodation with a double bedroom and two bedrooms with single beds, a fully equipped kitchen and a relaxed living space for spending time together. Outside, a private terrace with sun loungers, dining area and barbecue provides space for al fresco meals, while the gated pool offers a refreshing place to unwind after a day out exploring the island.

Lajares is well positioned for discovering the best of northern Fuerteventura. Within a short drive, families can reach the sandy beaches of El Cotillo, known for its sheltered lagoons, and the expansive dunes and beaches of Corralejo. The area is popular for surfing, cycling and walking, with volcanic landscapes and marked trails to explore.

The village itself has a laid-back atmosphere, with cafés, restaurants, small shops and a weekly market all within easy reach. Its central location makes it simple to explore both the north coast and inland attractions, while still returning to a peaceful base at the end of the day. Villa Lajares Tres provides a practical and comfortable setting for a family holiday in Fuerteventura.

Location & Local Information

Villa Lajares Tres is set in the heart of Lajares, a small inland village in northern Fuerteventura known for its relaxed atmosphere, artisan culture and laid-back lifestyle - perfect for families wanting both tranquillity and easy access to island highlights. Lajares has a selection of local cafés, restaurants, surf shops and a supermarket, so everyday needs are conveniently close at hand. The village is popular with visitors and locals alike, and its vibe reflects a blend of traditional Canarian life and creative energy.

Thanks to its central location, Lajares makes an excellent base for exploring the north of Fuerteventura. The beautiful beaches of El Cotillo, with sheltered lagoons ideal for kids, are a short drive away, while the lively town and sandy stretches of Corralejo - including the impressive sand dunes of Corralejo Natural Park - are also easily reachable by car. These spots offer watersports, family-friendly beaches, nature walks, plenty of dining options and also the ferry port taking you to Lanzarote.

Outdoor enthusiasts will enjoy nearby hiking and cycling opportunities, volcanic landscapes, and scenic viewpoints, making day trips varied and rewarding for all ages. Whether it's beach days, nature exploration or sampling local cuisine, Villa Lajares Tres puts families within easy reach of the best Fuerteventura has to offer.

What we love

- Like the look of this property but don't need all of the space? Why not check out Villa Lajares Dos (https://www.oliverstravels.com/spain/canary-islands/fuerteventura/villa-lajares-dos/), a similar property but with only two bedrooms and at a cheaper price!
- Villa Lajares Tres is located within the town of Lajares, with cute restaurants and cafes, and well-positioned to use as a base to explore the rest of northern Fuerteventura
- With three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a gated pool in your private garden, Villa Lajares Tres has been well-designed with families in mind!
