Overview

Marigot Manor is a uniquely designed enclave set on a headland above Marigot Bay, where three acres of lush landscaped gardens frame commanding sea views and direct access to a small, secluded cove. An architectural masterpiece, the estate reflects a refined Italian influence that is seamlessly interwoven with an unmistakable Caribbean spirit, allowing indoor and outdoor living to flow effortlessly together. A verdant walkway leads to the main house, where a sprawling living room is revealed, flanked by a formal dining area designed to host up to twenty guests. From here, doors are opened onto a sweeping boardwalk that guides guests towards the expansive swimming pool and onward to a cliffside gazebo, where the horizon stretches endlessly and the atmosphere is defined by privacy and calm.

The estate is composed of the principal residence and three beautifully appointed cottages, offering seven bedrooms and seven and a half bathrooms in total. Each cottage features two bedroom suites and a wet bar area, creating a sense of independence within the grounds. Amber Flamboyant presents an air conditioned master bedroom with en suite shower, a private patio with plunge pool, and a library that may be converted into a queen suite. Yellow Heliconia offers an air conditioned bedroom with en suite bath and outdoor shower, alongside a twin bedroom with private garden. White Frangipani is positioned at a lower level and includes two air conditioned bedrooms connected by a breezy living space. Within the main house, the St Lucia room provides an additional queen bedroom with en suite shower. Ideal for quiet repose or elegant entertaining, Marigot Manor comfortably welcomes multi family stays and remains moments from the historic yacht haven, dining, and boutiques of Marigot Bay.
