Casa Formentera VI

Region: Formentera Sleeps: 12

Overview

Casa Formentera VI is a five-suite villa inspired by the traditional architecture of Formentera, combining local design influences with contemporary comfort. Arranged across a main house and a separate annex linked by a covered porch, the villa offers 220m² of living space set within a 600m² plot. Features such as thick walls, carefully planned orientation and a double fireplace at the heart of the living area reflect the property's connection to the island's architectural heritage, while thoughtful details throughout contribute to a comfortable and practical living environment.

Designed for relaxed stays, the villa is equipped with a range of modern amenities. Each bedroom features independent air conditioning and heating, while the kitchen includes Siemens appliances such as an induction hob, oven, microwave, fridge and washing machine. Additional facilities include satellite television, bedroom safes, a laundry area with washer and dryer, a Nespresso coffee machine and bathrooms fitted with Porcelanosa rain-effect showers and bathtubs. Outside, guests can enjoy furnished terraces, a barbecue area, a solarium with sun loungers and hammocks, and a garage with an automatic door.

Located on the island of Formentera, Casa Formentera VI provides a convenient base for exploring one of the Mediterranean's most distinctive destinations. Known for its clear waters, sandy beaches and relaxed atmosphere, the island offers a variety of coastal and inland landscapes to discover. Whether you're seeking time by the sea, local dining experiences or opportunities to explore at a slower pace, Formentera offers an appealing setting throughout the year.

Location & Local Information

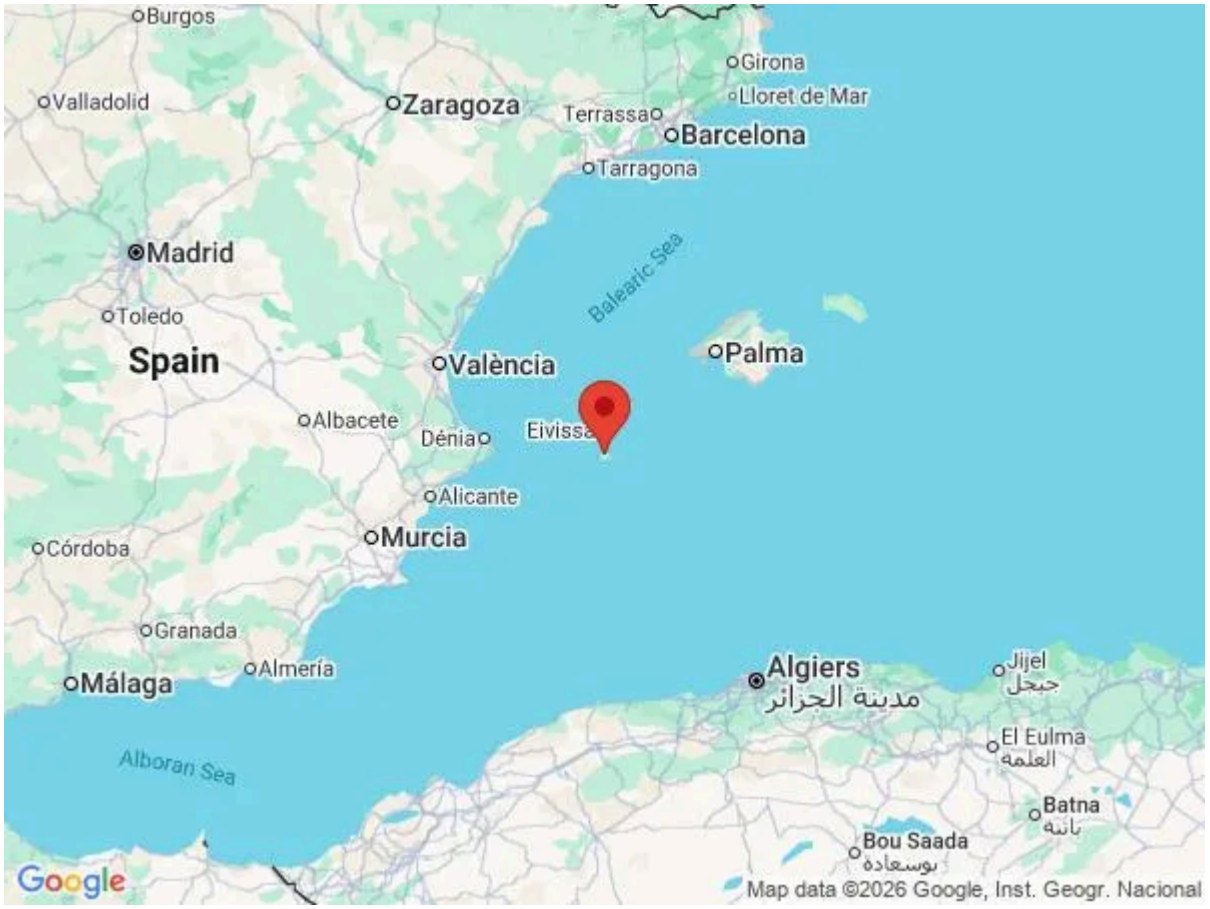

Casa Formentera VI enjoys a position close to Sant Francesc, the island's main village and a central point for shopping, dining and everyday island life. Formentera is renowned for its crystal-clear waters, sandy coastline and easy-going character, making it a popular choice for those looking to experience a slower Mediterranean rhythm.

The island's compact size makes exploring straightforward, whether you're heading to the beach, visiting local restaurants or discovering different corners of the island by bicycle. Popular activities include snorkelling, boat trips and spending time along the coastline, with a variety of beaches and swimming spots accessible across the island.

Travelling to Formentera is simple via Ibiza Airport, followed by a ferry crossing to the island. Once there, efficient road connections and short travel distances make it easy to explore the surrounding area and enjoy everything Formentera has to offer.
