Location & Local Information

Can Luna is located in Bajamar on Tenerife's northern coastline, a laid-back seaside town known for its dramatic Atlantic views and relaxed local atmosphere. This part of the island offers a different pace to the busier southern resorts, with striking volcanic scenery, coastal walking routes and natural swimming areas that make the most of the oceanfront setting.

The villa sits within a residential area above the coastline, allowing guests to enjoy wide views across the Atlantic while remaining close to the heart of Bajamar. The town is well known for its natural seawater pools, seaside promenades and local restaurants serving fresh Canarian cuisine. It's an excellent base for those who enjoy spending time by the water, whether swimming, walking along the coast or simply watching the waves roll in.

From here, guests can also explore more of northern Tenerife, including the historic city of San Cristóbal de La Laguna, a UNESCO World Heritage Site filled with colourful architecture, cafés and cultural landmarks. The surrounding region offers a mix of coastal landscapes, traditional towns and easy access to some of the island's most distinctive scenery.
