

Casa Codeso

Region: Tenerife Sleeps: 6

Overview

Casa Codeso is a modern villa located in La Quinta in the north of Tenerife, offering a refined setting designed for relaxation and comfort. Contemporary architecture and clean-lined interiors define the property, creating a bright and welcoming space where guests can unwind and enjoy time together. Surrounded by peaceful surroundings, the villa provides a calm retreat while maintaining a strong connection between its indoor and outdoor living areas.

The outdoor spaces have been carefully designed for easy, open-air living. A private heated swimming pool forms the centrepiece of the exterior, accompanied by sun loungers and an outdoor dining area where guests can gather for meals throughout the day. Inside, the villa features a bright open-plan layout that brings together the fully equipped kitchen, dining area and living room. Modern furnishings and generous natural light enhance the sense of space, creating a comfortable environment for both socialising and quiet downtime.

The region of La Quinta is known for its peaceful atmosphere and scenic surroundings. From here, guests can enjoy the quieter side of the island while remaining within easy reach of nearby towns and coastal viewpoints. The location offers a relaxed base for experiencing the character and landscapes of northern Tenerife.

Location & Local Information

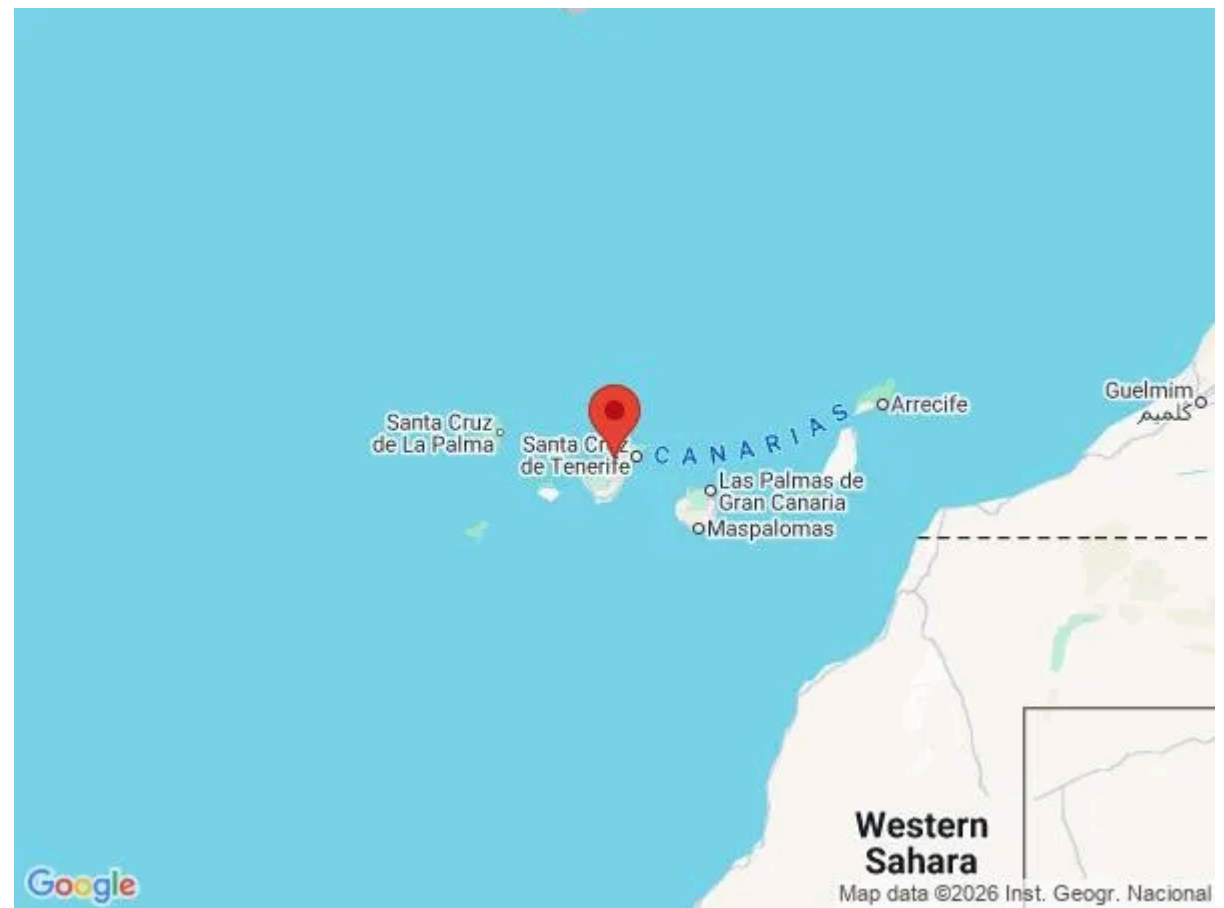

Casa Codeso is located in La Quinta in the north of Tenerife, an area known for its calm residential atmosphere and views across the island's northern coastline. This part of Tenerife offers a more relaxed pace compared to the busier resort areas, making it appealing for guests looking to enjoy a quieter setting while still being within reach of local amenities.

From the villa, guests can explore the surrounding northern region, which is known for its coastal scenery, viewpoints and traditional towns. The landscape here combines Atlantic views with green hillsides and volcanic terrain, offering a varied backdrop for walks, scenic drives and relaxed days out discovering the character of the island.

La Quinta also provides convenient access to nearby towns and dining spots where visitors can experience local Canarian cuisine and everyday island life. Casa Codeso's setting makes it an excellent base for those who wish to explore northern Tenerife while returning to a peaceful environment at the end of the day.
