Casa Primavera

Region: Tenerife Sleeps: 8

Overview

Casa Primavera is a welcoming villa in El Sauzal in the north of Tenerife, offering wide-reaching views and a peaceful setting for a relaxing island stay. Arranged across two levels, the property has been designed to make the most of its surroundings while providing comfortable spaces for socialising and unwinding. The upper floor brings together the main living areas, where an open-plan kitchen, dining and lounge space creates an easy, sociable atmosphere, complemented by a dedicated poker room for evenings of entertainment.

The outdoor areas provide plenty of opportunities to enjoy the island's climate. From the main living level, guests can step outside to the private swimming pool and barbecue area, making it easy to spend long afternoons dining and relaxing outdoors. On the lower floor, a spacious terrace with artificial grass offers additional space to unwind, complete with a jacuzzi, solarium and a chill-out zone designed for laid-back moments throughout the day.

Casa Primavera is located in El Sauzal, a town on Tenerife's northern coast known for its elevated position and impressive ocean views. This part of the island offers a quieter atmosphere while still providing easy access to nearby towns, coastal scenery and local dining spots. The setting makes it an excellent base for exploring northern Tenerife while enjoying a more relaxed pace of island life.

Location & Local Information

Casa Primavera is located in El Sauzal, a town on Tenerife's northern coast known for its elevated position and expansive Atlantic views. This area offers a relaxed atmosphere away from the busier resort zones, while still providing access to local restaurants, cafés and everyday amenities. The surrounding landscape combines coastal scenery with green hillsides, creating an appealing base for visitors looking to experience a quieter side of the island.

From the villa, guests are well placed to explore northern Tenerife's characterful towns and dramatic coastline. The region is known for its viewpoints overlooking the ocean, traditional Canarian villages and local wineries, which reflect the agricultural heritage of this part of the island. Scenic coastal drives and walking routes nearby make it easy to discover the natural beauty of the area.

Casa Primavera's position in El Sauzal also allows convenient access to other key destinations in the north of Tenerife, including nearby coastal towns and cultural centres. Whether spending time by the sea, visiting local markets or exploring the island's varied landscapes, guests can enjoy a well-connected yet peaceful setting during their stay.
