Location & Local Information

Villa Bela Luz is located near the traditional Algarve village of Boliqueime, a hilltop community known for its whitewashed houses, small cafés and local character. At the centre of the village is the Igreja Paroquial de São Sebastião, a striking church with a bright white façade and beautifully painted wooden ceilings. The nearby square often hosts local gatherings and an antique market on the first Sunday of each month. For something a little different, Gosto Interiores + Arte is a well-known design store set in converted warehouses, filled with vintage pieces, home décor and locally crafted finds.

The golden sands of Praia da Falésia are just a short drive away, stretching for miles beneath dramatic red and orange cliffs that glow at sunset. The surrounding countryside also offers plenty of opportunities for hiking, cycling and jeep safaris through almond and olive groves.

Nearby Vilamoura is one of the Algarve's most stylish coastal destinations, known for its vibrant marina, championship golf courses and lively restaurants. Often referred to as the "Monaco of Portugal", it's a popular hub for boat trips, watersports and evenings spent strolling along the marina lined with cafés, boutiques and yachts.

What we love

- The inviting outdoor space centres around a private pool with a smaller shallow section, sunny terrace and garden. Perfect for long, relaxed days outdoors.
- The master bedroom features a whirlpool bathtub, ideal for unwinding after a day exploring nearby beaches and coastal towns.
- Boliqueime's traditional village charm is close by, with local cafés, bakeries and a monthly antique market offering a taste of authentic Portuguese life.

What you should know...

- There is a nightclub located approximately 180m from the villa, so some noise may be heard between the end of July and the end of August.
- During your stay, occasional maintenance may take place in the outdoor areas, including the pool and garden, to ensure they are kept in excellent condition.
- The pool includes a smaller shallow section connected to the main pool and is not fenced, so young children should be supervised at all times.
