Villa el Roque

Region: Fuerteventura Sleeps: 10

Overview

Villa El Roque is a contemporary luxury villa in Fuerteventura designed to combine modern comfort with striking natural surroundings. With views stretching across the sea and nearby volcanic landscapes, the property offers a calm and spacious setting for a relaxing island stay. The villa features five bedrooms, three with en-suite bathrooms, allowing plenty of flexibility for groups travelling together. Inside, minimalist interiors filled with natural light create a bright and tranquil atmosphere that encourages both social time and quiet moments.

The villa offers a range of amenities designed to enhance comfort, such as high-speed WiFi, a centralised smart home system, a massage room, living area, and workspace. The villa's outdoor areas are designed to make the most of its dramatic setting. An infinity heated swimming pool overlooks the surrounding landscape, while terraces and a solarium provide places to relax and enjoy the views throughout the day. Guests can gather in the barbecue area for outdoor dining or make use of the outdoor sports and games zone. Multiple relaxation corners around the property allow everyone to find their own favourite spot to unwind.

Villa El Roque is located in El Roque in the north of Fuerteventura, an area known for its volcanic scenery and open landscapes. From here, guests can enjoy views across the sea and surrounding terrain while being well placed to explore this part of the island. The setting offers a peaceful base while remaining within reach of nearby coastal areas and towns across northern Fuerteventura.

Location & Local Information

Villa El Roque is located in El Roque in the north of Fuerteventura, an area known for its open landscapes, volcanic terrain and sweeping coastal views. This quieter part of the island offers a relaxed setting where visitors can enjoy the natural character of northern Fuerteventura while still having access to nearby towns and local amenities.

The surrounding region offers a range of outdoor experiences that highlight the island's distinctive scenery. Several beaches can be reached within a 10 minute drive, including the white sands and clear waters of Playa De Los Lagos. Nature lovers can also explore the volcanic landscapes nearby, with walking routes leading up to Calderón Hondo, one of the island's most accessible volcanic craters, where hikers can take in views across the lava fields and neighbouring islands.

Just 5 minutes drive from the villa, guests can enjoy visiting El Cotillo where local restaurants, cafés and bars provide a taste of everyday island life. Villa El Roque's location offers a peaceful base from which to explore the natural landscapes and coastal attractions that define this part of the island.
