Location & Local Information

Villa Suerte is located in Lajares, a village in the north of Fuerteventura known for its creative energy, relaxed pace and surrounding volcanic landscapes. The village has become a popular base for visitors exploring the island, with a selection of cafés, bakeries and small restaurants that give the area a welcoming local feel.

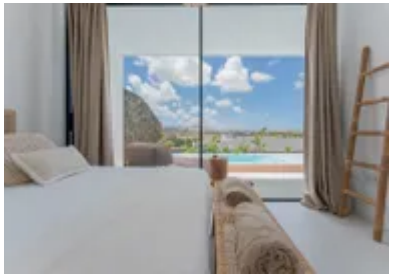

The surrounding landscape offers plenty of opportunities for outdoor exploration. One of the highlights nearby is Calderón Hondo, a volcanic crater with a walking path leading to the rim, where visitors can enjoy views across the lava fields and neighbouring islands. The mountain of Tindaya, visible from the villa, is one of the island's most recognisable landmarks and an important natural and cultural site.

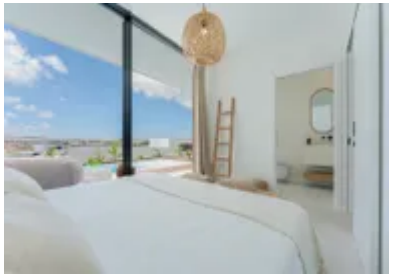

For time by the sea, the beaches around El Cotillo are within easy reach. Known for their sandy bays and clear Atlantic waters, they offer a striking contrast to the volcanic interior landscapes. From Villa Suerte, guests can easily combine days exploring volcanoes, enjoying Lajares or relaxing by the coast.
