Overview

Can Paradis is a five-bedroom villa surrounded by private gardens and open rural landscapes. Designed for groups seeking space and comfort, the property accommodates up to nine guests and offers a calm base while remaining well connected to Ibiza Town, nearby beaches and village life.

Outdoor living plays an important role at Can Paradis. Mediterranean planting surrounds the villa, with multiple terraces arranged for dining, relaxing and enjoying time together throughout the day. A dedicated outdoor dining area sits alongside the barbecue, while shaded seating areas provide relief during warmer hours. Open terraces invite guests to spend time in the sun, and the roof terrace offers a peaceful spot for evening drinks overlooking the surrounding countryside. Inside, the villa is arranged to create an open and practical living environment filled with natural light. The main living areas connect directly to the terraces and garden, encouraging an easy flow between indoor and outdoor spaces.

Five en-suite bedrooms provide privacy and flexibility for families or mixed groups, while additional features such as games, a pool table, fitness equipment, high-speed WiFi and a dedicated office space support both relaxation and productivity during your stay. Guests can also choose to enhance their time at the villa with the optional Private Dome Experience, a geodesic dome installed in the garden that can be styled for wellness sessions, private dining, cinema evenings or special celebrations.
