Sleeping up to twelve guests across two identical three-bedroom villas, this setup is particularly well suited to two families or groups of friends travelling together.

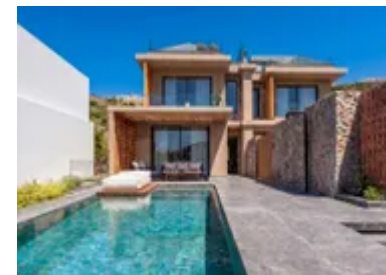

Positioned just steps from the shoreline, the modern villas offer uninterrupted sea views and direct access to the beach, creating a seamless connection between indoor living and the coast. Each villa is thoughtfully laid out across multiple levels, combining contemporary design with practical features, including open-plan living spaces, en-suite bedrooms, and expansive outdoor areas.

The villas can be enjoyed independently or connected via a connecting gate at the pool level and a discreet access door on the rooftop, allowing guests to move easily between both properties, perfect for socialising.

Location & Local Information

Villas Sidonia are set in the small coastal area of Sidonia on Crete's southern shoreline, offering a more laid-back alternative to the island's busier northern resorts. Positioned just 20 metres from Paralia Sidonia, guests have direct access to the beach, with the sound of the sea and open views across the Libyan coastline shaping the setting.

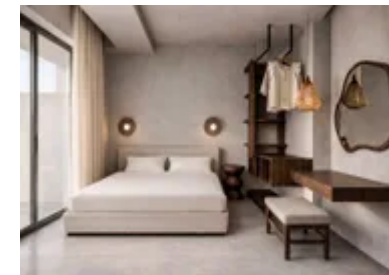

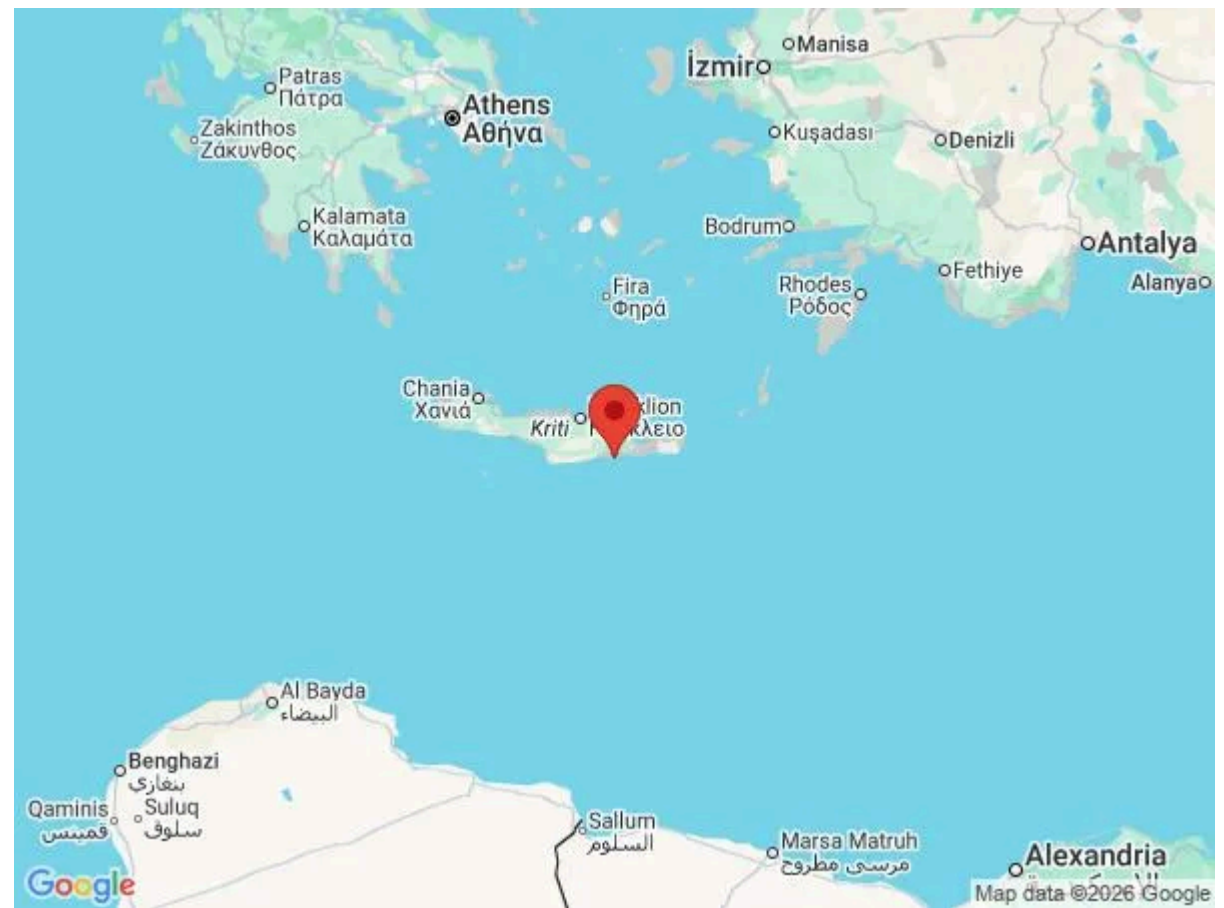

Within walking distance, you'll find a handful of local tavernas, including traditional options just 400–450 metres away, as well as a beach bar café only moments from the villa. A mini market is close by, making day-to-day essentials and casual outings easy and convenient.

The surrounding area is well suited to those looking to explore southern Crete, with scenic drives, quieter beaches, and local villages all within reach. Heraklion city and airport are approximately 75–76 km away, making arrivals and departures straightforward, while a car is recommended for accessing wider amenities such as pharmacies, larger supermarkets, and cultural sites.

This location offers a balanced mix of seafront living and access to local life, ideal for a relaxed stay. We recommend hiring a car in order to explore all that Crete has to offer.
