Palacio del Cortijo

Region: Andalucia Sleeps: 14

Overview

Palacio del Cortijo is a remarkable townhouse that captures the spirit of Seville's architectural heritage while offering the space and comfort suited to modern group stays. Set on historic Abades Street in the heart of the Santa Cruz district, this seven-bedroom residence places you just moments from the Cathedral, the Alcázar and La Giralda. From the moment you step inside, original features such as coffered ceilings, stained-glass windows and traditional galleries set the tone for a stay rooted in history yet designed for ease.

Arranged across multiple floors connected by an elegant central staircase, the house has been thoughtfully configured for larger groups, with six of the seven bedrooms featuring en-suite bathrooms and their own lounge areas. Generous living spaces include a fully equipped kitchen ideal for extended stays and a striking main salon with distinct dining and seating areas, where handcrafted details and carefully chosen furnishings create a refined yet comfortable setting.

At the heart of the home, a private inner courtyard offers a quiet retreat in true Andalusian style, while the rooftop terrace provides a relaxed spot to enjoy the city's warm climate. Although the building shares an entrance and lift with two independent apartments, guests enjoy complete privacy within the house itself. Surrounded by winding streets, local markets and some of Seville's best dining, Palacio del Cortijo offers an immersive stay in one of the city's most historic neighbourhoods.

Location & Local Information

Set in Seville's historic Santa Cruz district, Palacio del Cortijo places you right at the centre of the city's cultural and architectural heritage. Located on Abades Street, one of the area's most characterful lanes, the house is just a short walk from the Cathedral, La Giralda and the Alcázar, making it easy to explore some of Seville's most celebrated landmarks on foot.

This neighbourhood is defined by its network of narrow streets, small squares and centuries-old buildings, where everyday life unfolds alongside the city's history. Traditional tapas bars, local markets and independent shops are all within easy reach, offering plenty of opportunities to experience Seville's food scene and atmosphere without needing transport.

Despite its central setting, the pedestrianised streets create a sense of calm, with limited traffic and a slower pace that suits both relaxed mornings and evenings out. Whether you're visiting for culture, food or simply to spend time together, this location offers immediate access to the best of the city while maintaining a distinctly local feel.

What we love

- The historic architectural features at Palacio Del Cortijo make this home feel really special, without compromising on comfort
- The central location is amazing - the house is just moments from Seville's most iconic landmarks
- The private courtyard and rooftop terrace offer outdoor space in the heart of the city - a rare find!

What you should know...

- There is no private parking at the property, though there is public parking nearby
- The main entrance, lift and staircase to the rooftop are shared with other flats in the building, though the rooftop itself is private
