

Villa Mira

Region: Northern Corsica Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Mira is a contemporary abode designed for easy living and is a great base near Saint-Florent. Completed only recently, this modern home offers a convenient setting where indoor and outdoor spaces flow stylishly, accompanied by a terrace and your very own swimming pool.

Designed for up to 6 guests, the 3-bedroom villa combines comfort with practicality. Two bedrooms feature 160cm double beds, while a third twin room is ideal for children or friends. Two of the bedrooms, including the twin, are set upstairs and open onto an upper terrace through sliding doors, a pleasant spot for an evening aperitif. Two attractive shower rooms ensure convenience, one of which is en suite to the ground floor double.

The stylish open-plan living space features comfortable seating, a relaxed area for dining and a fantastic kitchen where you can prepare a wealth of Corsican delights. Doors slide open to the poolside terrace where you can gather al-fresco for meals on warm summer evenings. The swimming pool itself is a superb addition, ideal for cooling off after a day exploring this captivating region, and the pétanque court adds a traditional touch.

Within a residential neighbourhood close to a large supermarket and a couple of local restaurants, Villa Mira sits just a short drive from Saint-Florent. The picturesque harbour town offers lively cafés, a historic citadel, summer boat trips and access to beaches such as Plage de la Roya. Venture further to discover Oletta, local vineyards or the wild landscapes of the Désert des Agriates.

For those seeking a practical base with comfort and connection, Villa Mira offers an easy, well-located home in northern Corsica.

Location & Local Information

Surrounded by similar properties, Villa Mira is located within a residential secured neighbourhood a short drive from Saint-Florent, a setting that blends everyday convenience with easy reach of some of northern Corsica's most captivating coastal and rural landscapes.

Practical amenities are close at hand, making day-to-day living easy. A large supermarket sits less than a 10-minute walk away, ideal for stocking up on fresh produce and essentials, while a couple of nearby restaurants provide easy options for casual meals without venturing far. The villa is also well connected for arrivals, with Bastia Airport around a 30-minute drive and ferry ports in Bastia, L'Île-Rousse and Calvi all within comfortable reach.

Just a short drive brings you to the heart of Saint-Florent (3.5km), a delightful harbour town known for its lively marina framed by cafés and waterside dining spots. The historic citadel stands proudly above the bay, offering a glimpse into the town's past alongside sweeping sea views. Close by, the sandy stretch of Plage de la Roya (3km) is perfect for a refreshing swim or a laid-back afternoon by the water.

Venture slightly inland and you'll discover the hilltop village of Oletta (7km), where winding lanes and elevated vistas showcase a more traditional side of Corsican life. The surrounding Nebbiu region is also renowned for its vineyards, particularly within the Patrimonio appellation, where wine tastings reveal the island's distinctive character.

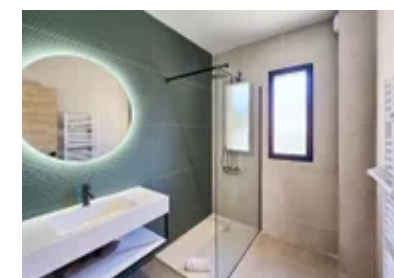

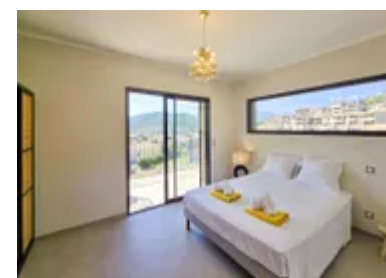

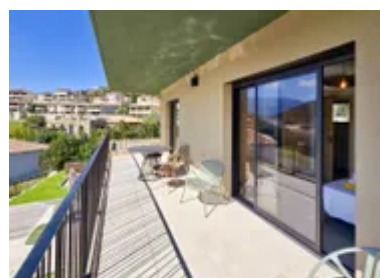

For those seeking adventure, the nearby Désert des Agriates offers wild, unspoilt terrain, while boat excursions from Saint-Florent lead to the pristine beaches of Saleccia and Lotu, famed for their crystal-clear waters.

For a scenic escape, the dramatic landscapes of Cap Corse await, with striking coastal spots such as Farinole and the dark, pebbled shoreline beneath Nonza providing a memorable contrast to the beaches closer to home.
