Location & Local Information

Glaros is a laid-back coastal spot just a few kilometres west of Chania, offering an ideal balance between beachside relaxation and easy access to the city's vibrant centre. Tucked between Agioi Apostoloi and Kalamaki, it's a convenient base for travellers who want to enjoy Crete's famous coastline while staying within a short drive of Chania's Old Town, harbour, and cultural attractions. The area has a relaxed, unhurried feel, making it especially appealing for families and couples seeking a quieter stay.

The beaches around Glaros are among its main highlights. A mix of soft sand, gentle waters, and small sheltered coves makes this stretch of coastline particularly inviting for swimming and sunbathing. Nearby Agioi Apostoloi is known for its series of protected bays, which offer calm conditions even on windier days, as well as scenic walking paths through pine trees and coastal greenery. The setting is ideal for leisurely beach days, morning swims, and sunset strolls along the shore.

Despite its peaceful atmosphere, Glaros has everything you need close at hand. A selection of traditional tavernas, cafés, and local shops are dotted throughout the area, while more extensive dining, shopping, and nightlife options are just minutes away in Chania. Whether you're looking to unwind by the sea, explore western Crete, or dip into the charm of Chania's historic streets, Glaros offers a comfortable and well-connected base for your stay.
