Chalet Dolomia

Region: Dolomites Sleeps: 7

Overview

Chalet Dolomia is a thoughtfully designed four-bedroom mountain retreat in Val Rendena, set between the Brenta Dolomites and the Adamello range within the Adamello Brenta Natural Park. Sleeping up to seven guests across two floors, Chalet Dolomia combines warm alpine character with modern, environmentally conscious design, making it a comfortable base for families, couples or groups of friends.

Inside, natural materials, timber finishes and carefully chosen artwork create a calm and characterful atmosphere. The main living area centres around an open fireplace, with comfortable seating for relaxed evenings after a day on the slopes. An open-plan kitchen and dining space encourages sociable meals, while a dedicated home-office area with two workstations and high-speed Wi-Fi offers useful flexibility for longer stays. The four bedrooms include two double rooms, a twin room and a bunk bedroom, with three shower rooms completing the accommodation.

Wellness is a key part of the Chalet Dolomia experience. Guests can unwind in the private sauna and Turkish bath, while the spacious garden provides plenty of room to enjoy the peaceful setting. A sunroom, gazebo, barbecue, outdoor oven and outdoor shower extend the living space outside, particularly during milder months. The property also includes practical facilities such as a washing machine, tumble dryer, private parking and a well-equipped kitchen.

Chalet Dolomia is located close to the village of Spiazzo, with local shops, cafés and restaurants around 500 m away. The ski areas of Pinzolo and Madonna di Campiglio can be reached by car, while the surrounding valley offers excellent access to skiing, winter walking and year-round mountain activities.

Location & Local Information

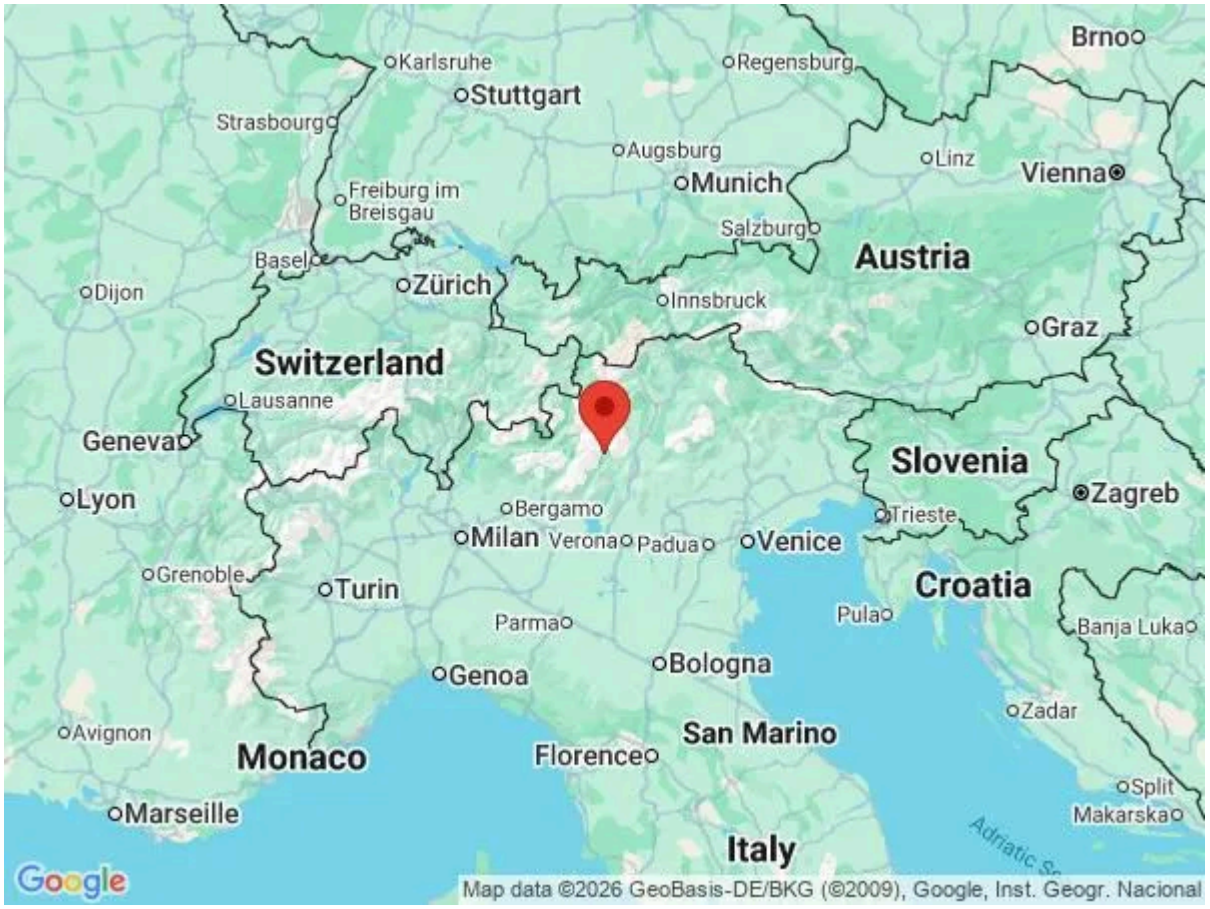

Enjoying a peaceful setting in Val Rendena, Chalet Dolomia sits within the Adamello Brenta Natural Park and between the Brenta Dolomites and the Adamello mountain range. The village of Spiazzo is approximately 500 m away, placing local restaurants, cafés, shops and a supermarket within easy reach, while the chalet itself feels comfortably removed from the busier resort centres.

The property is well placed for exploring two of the region's best-known ski areas, Pinzolo and Madonna di Campiglio, both reached by car. In winter, the surrounding landscape offers skiing, snowshoeing and winter walking, while the wider valley is also suited to hiking, cycling and climbing. Nearby leisure facilities include tennis and padel courts in Spiazzo, golf in Bocenago and horse riding around 2 km away.

This part of the Dolomites is known for dramatic mountain scenery, forested slopes and a quieter alpine atmosphere than the main ski resorts. Chalet Dolomia is therefore a strong choice for guests who want access to the slopes and local amenities without staying directly in the centre of a busy resort.

What we love

- Chalet Dolomia combines warm alpine character with contemporary, eco-conscious design.
- A generous garden gives Chalet Dolomia a peaceful sense of space and privacy to be enjoyed in all seasons
- Chalet Dolomia is well placed between the ski areas of Pinzolo and Madonna di Campiglio.
- Local shops, cafés and restaurants in Spiazzo are only a short walk from Chalet Dolomia.
- Casa del Parco Acqua Life is just across the road from Chalet Dolomia, which offers an engaging introduction to the rivers, lakes and aquatic wildlife of the Adamello Brenta Natural Park, a great adventure day out for all the family.

What you should know...

- Chalet Dolomia is located in a quiet village setting rather than directly within a ski resort, therefore driving to the ski lifts will be the most convenient.
- The garden is not fully fenced, so younger children should be supervised outside, additionally there are uneven stone steps in the garden, pelase do take care especially in winter.
- The bunk bedroom is best suited to children or teenagers due to the size and clearence of the beds
- Please note an exterior security camera overlooks the private parking area and is in place for guest safety, this camera does not record audio.
