Casa Begura

Region: Mallorca Sleeps: 4

Overview

Casa Begura is a peaceful countryside retreat designed for guests looking to switch off and enjoy a more private side of Mallorca. Set within 50,000m² of land near Sant Llorenç, the villa combines contemporary comforts with vintage-inspired interiors and wide views across the surrounding landscape. Powered by solar panels and designed with sustainability in mind, the house offers a calm and comfortable setting where guests can fully enjoy the slower pace of rural island life. With two spacious bedrooms and generous indoor and outdoor living areas, Casa Begura is well suited to couples, small families or friends travelling together.

Outside, the terrace overlooks the countryside and includes comfortable sofas positioned beside the swimming pool, which is surrounded by lawn and garden space. Inside, the villa features a large open-plan living and dining area alongside a fully equipped kitchen, all connected to an additional outdoor terrace for easy indoor-outdoor living throughout the day. The two bedrooms are designed with comfort in mind, including one bedroom with an ensuite bathroom.

Although surrounded by countryside, Casa Begura is well placed for exploring the north-east of Mallorca. The nearby town of Sant Llorenç offers a traditional local atmosphere with restaurants, cafés and weekly markets, while beaches and coastal villages can also be reached within a short drive. The villa's secluded setting provides privacy and quiet while still allowing guests to explore both the coast and countryside with ease.

Location & Local Information

Casa Begura is surrounded by open countryside near Sant Llorenç, offering guests the chance to experience a quieter and more rural side of Mallorca. The area is well suited to walking and cycling, with country roads and trails winding through farmland, rolling hills and traditional villages. Staying here makes it easy to slow down and enjoy the landscape, whether spending mornings exploring the local area or simply relaxing back at the villa surrounded by nature.

The historic town of Artà is also within easy reach and is one of the most characterful destinations in the region. Known for its weekly market, independent shops and traditional stone buildings, it offers a lively atmosphere while still retaining a strong local identity. Visitors can wander through its narrow streets, stop at cafés and restaurants or head up to the hilltop sanctuary overlooking the town and surrounding countryside.

The north-east coast is also easily accessible by car, with beaches and seaside villages dotted along the shoreline. Guests can spend days visiting sandy beaches, swimming in clear water or exploring coastal areas such as Cala Millor, Sa Coma and Costa de los Pinos. The villa's inland location allows guests to enjoy both the countryside and the coast during their stay, without being directly in the middle of a busy resort area.

What we love

- Sitting on a 50,000m² plot of countryside, there is a sense of total privacy and space at Casa Begura
- The vintage interiors completed with modern comforts gives the villa so much character while still feeling comfortable and practical
- The pool terrace, with its open countryside views and quiet surroundings, make this the perfect place to properly switch off

What you should know...

- The garden is terraced, with the swimming pool only accessible via a staircase, meaning it may not be suitable for those with reduced mobility
- The swimming pool is unfenced, meaning children will require supervision
- Due to the rural location, car hire is essential during your stay here
