Casa Picar

Region: Mallorca Sleeps: 8

Overview

Casa Picar is a spacious countryside villa set in the valley of Mancor de la Vall, surrounded by mountain views and over 5,000m² of private grounds. The house combines generous indoor and outdoor living spaces with a peaceful rural setting close to Inca. With multiple terraces, extensive gardens and room for families or groups of friends to spread out comfortably, the villa is well suited to guests looking to enjoy Mallorca's countryside while remaining within easy reach of local towns and amenities.

The villa is arranged across two floors that are not internally connected, offering plenty of flexibility and privacy for larger groups travelling together. With multiple living areas, spacious bedrooms and several terraces, Casa Picar is particularly well suited to extended families or groups of friends looking for space to relax both together and separately. The open-plan kitchen and dining area creates a sociable setting for long meals and evenings indoors, while outside, the barbecue area, chill-out terrace and large swimming pool make it easy to spend entire days enjoying the Mallorcan sunshine. The extensive garden, lawn and ping pong table add even more space for outdoor living and entertainment throughout the stay.

Casa Picar enjoys a peaceful location in the valley of Mancor de la Vall, surrounded by countryside and mountain scenery while remaining close to the town of Inca. Known as one of Mallorca's main inland towns, Inca offers a wide selection of restaurants, cafés, shops and weekly markets, making it a convenient base for exploring the centre of the island. The surrounding area is particularly popular for walking and cycling, with quiet country roads and routes leading towards the Tramuntana mountains. Guests can enjoy the privacy and open space of the villa while still being well connected for exploring both rural Mallorca and the island's northern coastline.

Location & Local Information

Casa Picar is set in the valley of Mancor de la Vall, an area known for its mountain scenery, rural landscapes and quieter pace of life. Surrounded by countryside, the villa is well placed for walking and cycling, with routes leading through traditional villages, olive groves and towards the Tramuntana mountains. The setting offers a more peaceful side of Mallorca, ideal for guests looking to spend time outdoors while enjoying privacy and open space throughout their stay.

Just a 15-minute walk away, Inca is one of Mallorca's main inland towns and is well known for its weekly market, local restaurants and lively atmosphere. Visitors can explore its cafés, traditional shops and tapas bars, while the town's central location also makes it a convenient base for discovering other parts of the island. Inca offers a balance between local Mallorcan character and practical amenities, with supermarkets, boutiques and dining options all easily accessible.

Casa Picar is also well connected for exploring northern Mallorca and the coastline beyond. Guests can combine days in the countryside with trips to nearby beaches and coastal towns, all within driving distance of the villa. This central location makes it easy to experience both the mountain landscapes and the coast during your stay.
