Overview

Casa Pontons is a traditional Mallorcan villa that combines original character with carefully restored contemporary interiors, creating a comfortable countryside retreat for up to eight guests. Surrounded by rural landscapes near Sa Pobla and Búger, the villa has four bedrooms, generous outdoor areas and views stretching across the countryside, making it well suited to families or groups of friends looking for privacy and outdoor living in a peaceful setting.

Outside, the villa is centred around a swimming pool with shallow, beach-style entry and a spacious sun terrace with loungers overlooking the surrounding countryside. A lawn area and a beautifully designed courtyard provide additional places to relax throughout the day, while the outdoor kitchen and al fresco dining areas make outdoor meals a central part of the stay. The interiors balance traditional features with modern finishes, preserving the atmosphere and warmth of the original Mallorcan house while creating bright and comfortable living spaces throughout. Guests will also benefit from a private gym, adding another layer of convenience for longer stays.

Set close to both Sa Pobla and Búger, Casa Pontons is well placed for exploring northern Mallorca and the island's rural interior. Traditional villages, local markets and countryside walking and cycling routes are all nearby, while the beaches of Playa de Muro and Alcúdia can also be reached within driving distance. The villa's location offers a balance between peaceful countryside surroundings and easy access to both the coast and inland Mallorca.

Location & Local Information

Casa Pontons enjoys a peaceful countryside setting between Sa Pobla and Búger, surrounded by open farmland and rural scenery typical of northern Mallorca. The area is ideal for guests looking to experience a quieter side of the island, with country roads and nearby walking and cycling routes offering plenty of opportunities to explore the landscape at a slower pace. Despite the villa's private atmosphere, local villages and amenities remain within easy reach.

Sa Pobla is known for its lively local character, traditional restaurants and weekly market, while nearby Búger offers a smaller and more relaxed village atmosphere. Together, the two towns provide a good balance of practical amenities and authentic Mallorcan charm, allowing guests to experience everyday life beyond the island's larger resort areas. The surrounding region is particularly popular with visitors interested in food, local culture and outdoor activities.

The villa is also well located for reaching Mallorca's northern coastline, including the beaches of Playa de Muro and Alcúdia. Guests can easily spend days by the sea before returning to the quieter countryside surroundings of Casa Pontons in the evening. Nature reserves, beachside restaurants and coastal walking routes are all accessible within driving distance, making the location a convenient base for exploring both inland and coastal Mallorca.
