Castell Del Bosc

Region: Girona Sleeps: 23

Overview

Castell Del Bosc is a remarkable 19th-century estate set within the woodlands of Catalonia's Guilleries region, offering an extraordinary setting for large family gatherings, milestone celebrations and private events. Originally built in 1895 and carefully renovated, the castle combines historic character with modern comforts across twelve bedrooms and a collection of impressive indoor and outdoor spaces. Accommodating up to 23 overnight guests, with the option to increase capacity through the neighbouring guesthouse, the estate is particularly well suited to weddings, retreats, corporate gatherings and special occasions that call for a memorable backdrop. From its distinctive tower rooms to its panoramic terraces, Castell Del Bosc is a property designed for bringing people together in complete privacy.

The estate offers an exceptional range of facilities for both leisure and events. Inside, guests have access to grand reception spaces including a 70 m² Music Hall, a spacious dining room, multiple lounges and a 103 m² attic that can be used for meetings, workshops or wellness sessions. The lower ground floor features a 75 m² wine cellar for gatherings and activities, alongside a professional kitchen available on request for catering and private chefs. Outside, the grounds provide a variety of dedicated event and social spaces, including a 15-metre swimming pool, panoramic terraces, landscaped gardens, woodland areas and outdoor dining facilities. Reliable dual high-speed internet, extensive parking and a range of optional services further support both private celebrations and professional productions.

Surrounded by the forests of the Guilleries Natural Park, Castell Del Bosc enjoys a secluded hillside position while remaining within easy reach of Girona and the wider region. The nearby town of Sant Hilari Sacalm offers local restaurants, cafés and essential amenities, while Girona provides access to fine dining, shopping and cultural attractions. Guests can also explore the area's hiking trails, reservoirs and historic villages, with Barcelona and the Costa Brava accessible for longer day trips. Combining privacy, scale and flexibility, Castell Del Bosc offers a rare opportunity to host unforgettable gatherings in one of Catalonia's most distinctive private estates.

Location & Local Information

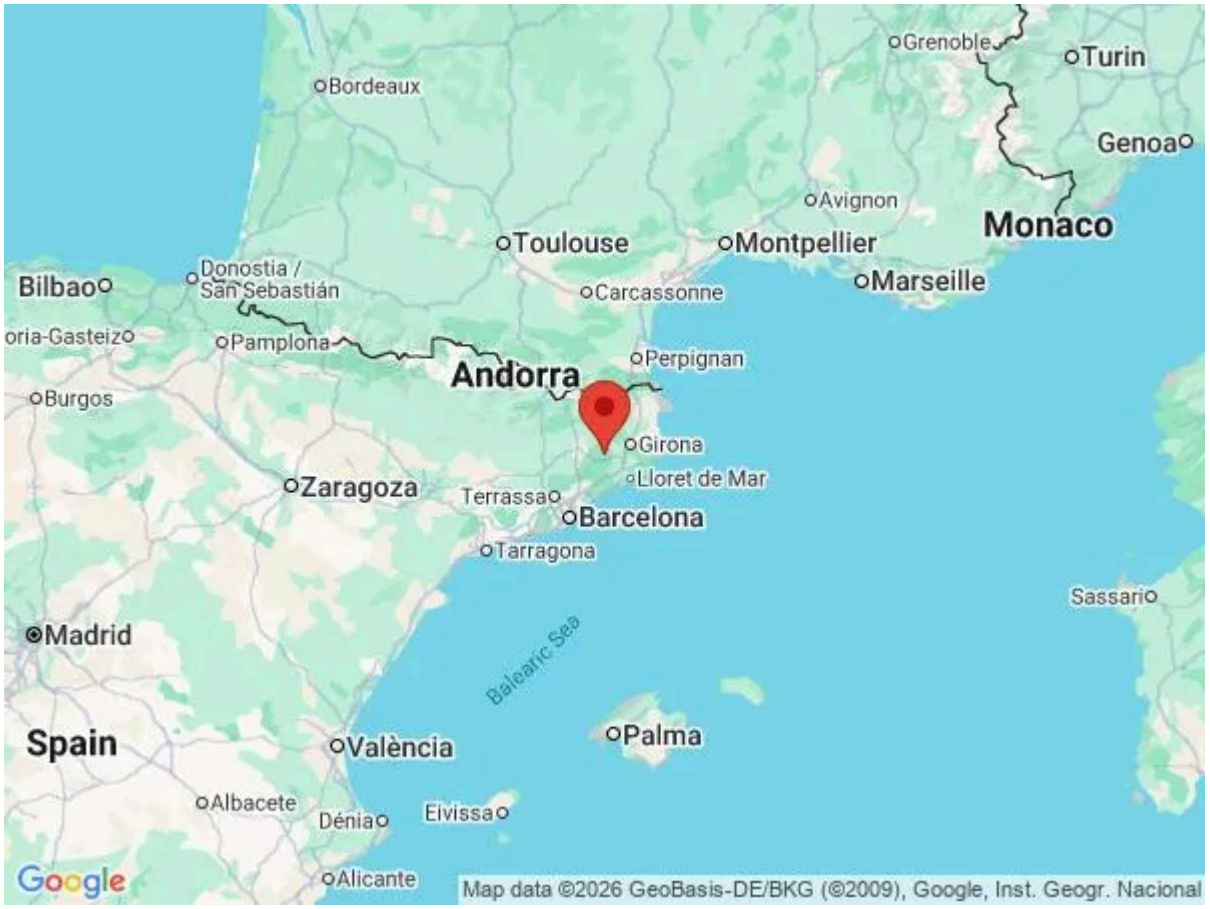

Set within the wooded hills of Catalonia's Guilleries region, Castell Del Bosc enjoys an exceptional position surrounded by nature, privacy and far-reaching views. Reached via a private forest lane and occupying its own hillside setting, the estate offers a sense of complete seclusion that is increasingly rare to find. It provides an ideal environment for destination celebrations, retreats and exclusive group stays, where guests can enjoy the estate and its surroundings without interruption.

The property is located close to Sant Hilari Sacalm, a traditional mountain town known for its natural springs, local restaurants, cafés and relaxed atmosphere. Beyond the town, the wider Les Guilleries region is characterised by forests, reservoirs, walking trails and historic villages, offering plenty of opportunities to explore Catalonia's natural and cultural heritage. Popular destinations including Rupit, Osor, Vic and Vilanova de Sau are all within reach for day trips, while Girona's celebrated old town, restaurants and cultural attractions can be reached in around 35 kilometres.

Despite its peaceful setting, Castell Del Bosc remains well connected for international travellers. Girona–Costa Brava Airport is approximately 30 minutes away by car, while Barcelona can be reached in around 90 minutes. This combination of accessibility and privacy makes the estate particularly appealing for weddings, family celebrations, corporate retreats and creative productions, offering guests the feeling of escaping to their own private estate while remaining connected to some of Catalonia's most sought-after destinations.
