Location & Local Information

Elysian sunset Villa is part of the exclusive Santo Pure Resort, home to an award-winning spa, an all-day Greek-inspired restaurant and bar, and six inviting outdoor swimming pools. Perched on a rugged hillside overlooking the picturesque Ammoudi Bay, the villa enjoys a privileged position just north of Oia on the Cycladic island of Santorini, surrounded by the shimmering waters of the Aegean Sea.

The villa is approximately a thirty-minute drive from Santorini International Airport and around forty-five minutes from Athinios Port. Ammoudi Bay is just a fifteen-minute walk away, while the tranquil beaches of Baxedes and Coloumbo are within easy reach. Santorini's famous Red Beach and White Beach can both be reached in around thirty minutes by car.

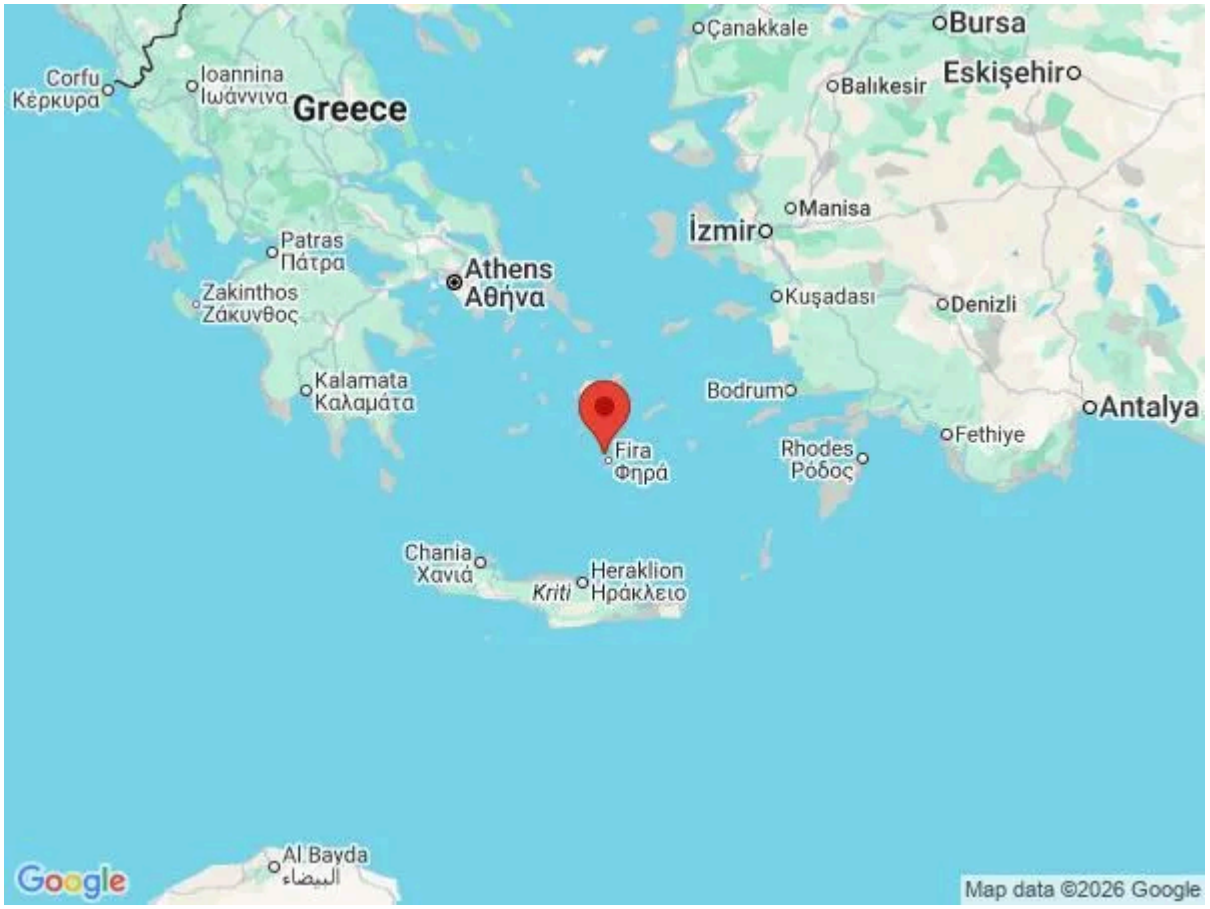

One of the island's most enchanting destinations, Oia is a postcard-perfect village renowned for its whitewashed buildings, blue-domed churches, boutique shops, and narrow cobbled streets. Wander past traditional windmills, visit the Naval Maritime Museum, or take a refreshing dip from the cliffs into Ammoudi Bay before enjoying freshly caught seafood at a waterfront taverna. As evening falls, Oia's world-famous sunset provides an unforgettable backdrop.

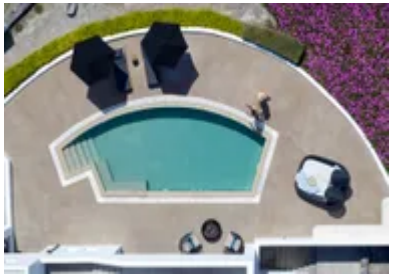

For those wishing to explore further, the spectacular nine-kilometre Caldera Trail leads from Oia to Fira, rewarding walkers with breathtaking coastal views along the way. Fira is home to several fascinating museums, including the Museum of Prehistoric Thera and the Koutsoyannopoulos Wine Museum, where visitors can discover the island's rich volcanic winemaking heritage.

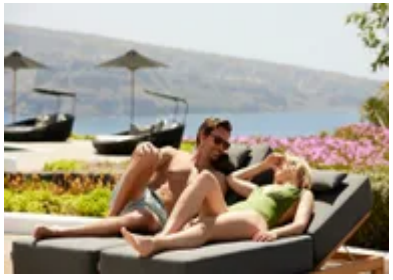

Beyond Oia, the charming village of Pyrgos sits on the slopes of Mount Profitis Ilias, offering medieval alleyways, traditional tavernas, and celebrated Assyrtiko vineyards. History enthusiasts can visit the remarkably preserved archaeological site of Ancient Akrotiri or tour the elegant Argyros Mansion, while boat excursions to the volcanic islands of Nea Kameni and Palia Kameni reveal Santorini's dramatic geological landscape. Whether enjoying a sunset cruise, sampling local wines, or discovering the island's rich history and striking scenery, Santorini promises an unforgettable Mediterranean escape.

What we love

- Private pool and Jacuzzi with Aegean Sea views – Having exclusive access to a swimming pool and Jacuzzi overlooking the sea creates a relaxing retreat, especially at sunset, one of Santorini's most iconic experiences.
- A wellness-focused stay – With a private gym, en-suite sauna, and the option to arrange yoga sessions and spa treatments in the garden, guests can enjoy a personalised wellness retreat without leaving the villa.
- Stylish, calming interiors – The blend of rustic and boho-inspired décor with contemporary minimalist design creates a warm, elegant atmosphere that feels both luxurious and inviting.

What you should know...

- Best suited to small groups – The villa accommodates up to four guests, making it ideal for couples, families, or friends, but not for larger groups.
- Some wellness services are not included – Yoga sessions, spa treatments, and butler service are available only upon request and may incur additional charges, so it's worth arranging these in advance.
- Oia is built on steep hills with steps and uneven pathways, which may not suit guests with limited mobility.
- Please note: Minimum age of children is 12 years old.
