Location & Local Information

Dalyan is a peaceful riverside town on Turkey's southwest coast, set between the Mediterranean Sea, Lake Köyceğiz, and the Dalyan River. Surrounded by mountains, wetlands, and pine forests, the area is known for its natural scenery and relaxed atmosphere, making it a popular choice for visitors looking to enjoy a slower pace of holiday.

The town centre offers a good selection of restaurants, cafés, shops, and local markets, all within a walkable area. Traditional wooden boats travel along the river throughout the day, providing easy access to nearby attractions including İztuzu Beach and the ancient Lycian rock tombs carved into the cliffs overlooking the water.

One of Dalyan's best-known attractions is İztuzu Beach, a long stretch of golden sand that forms a protected nesting site for loggerhead sea turtles. The area also offers opportunities for boat trips, fishing, hiking, cycling, and exploring the surrounding countryside, while the nearby mud baths and thermal springs are popular with both visitors and locals.

Despite its tranquil setting, Dalyan is well connected, with Dalaman Airport approximately 30 minutes away by car. Combining natural beauty, historical landmarks, and a welcoming atmosphere, Dalyan provides an excellent base for exploring Turkey's Turquoise Coast while enjoying a peaceful and scenic holiday destination.

What we love

- The lagoon-style swimming pool – The sandy shoreline creates a unique beach-like setting, offering a more distinctive and relaxing experience than a standard private pool.
- Set amongst nature, the villa provides a quiet environment where guests can unwind away from busy resorts while still being within easy reach of Dalyan.
- The covered terrace provides a comfortable place for family breakfasts, barbecues, and relaxed evenings after a day of exploring.

What you should know...

- The villa is set in a peaceful natural location, so a car or local transport may be useful for reaching Dalyan's centre, shops, and beaches.
- The lagoon-style pool has a gently sloping sandy entry rather than traditional pool steps, so young children should always be supervised around the water.
