Location & Local Information

Kalkan is one of Turkey's most picturesque coastal towns, set on the Lycian Coast between the Taurus Mountains and the Mediterranean Sea. Known for its whitewashed buildings, colourful bougainvillea, and sweeping sea views, the town has retained much of its traditional charm while offering a wide range of restaurants, cafés, boutique shops, and waterfront bars. Its compact layout makes it easy to explore on foot, with many attractions centred around the attractive harbour and historic old town.

The town is well known for its excellent dining scene, with many restaurants featuring rooftop terraces overlooking the bay. Visitors can browse independent shops selling local crafts, jewellery, clothing, and Turkish goods before enjoying an evening stroll along the marina. Kalkan also offers a selection of beach clubs, where guests can swim in the clear waters, relax on sun loungers, or enjoy water sports and boat trips along the coastline.

Kalkan is an ideal base for exploring the surrounding area. The famous Kaputaş Beach is just a short drive away, while the expansive sandy beach at Patara offers miles of coastline and impressive natural scenery. Visitors can also take boat trips to nearby bays and islands, discover ancient Lycian sites such as Xanthos and Letoon, or explore the scenic villages and countryside that surround the town.

Combining beautiful coastal scenery, excellent restaurants, nearby beaches, and easy access to historical and natural attractions, Kalkan offers a relaxed and enjoyable holiday destination for couples, families, and groups alike.

What we love

- The villa enjoys uninterrupted views across Kalkan Bay, the marina, and the surrounding mountains, which can be enjoyed from the pool terrace, balconies, living area, and roof terrace.
- All three bedrooms have their own en-suite shower room, giving couples, families, or groups added privacy and convenience during their stay.

What you should know...

- Villa Manza is situated in Kızıltaş, an elevated area of Kalkan. The position provides excellent sea views, but the return walk from the town centre is uphill, so some guests may prefer to drive or use local taxis.
- The private swimming pool has a uniform depth of approximately 1.5 metres and may not be suitable for very young or non-swimming children without close adult supervision.
