Location & Local Information

Elounda is one of Crete's most popular coastal destinations, known for its beautiful waterfront, relaxed atmosphere, and views across Mirabello Bay. Once a traditional fishing village, it has grown into an elegant resort while retaining its authentic Cretan character, with a selection of tavernas, cafés, boutique shops, and waterfront restaurants.

The area is well placed for exploring some of eastern Crete's most popular attractions. Just offshore lies the historic island of Spinalonga, one of the region's best-known landmarks, which can be reached by regular boat trips from Elounda's harbour. Nearby beaches and sheltered coves also provide opportunities for swimming, snorkelling, and a variety of water sports.

Elounda is also within easy reach of the lively town of Agios Nikolaos, where visitors can enjoy additional shopping, dining, and sightseeing. Whether you're looking to relax by the sea, discover local history, or explore the surrounding coastline, Elounda provides an excellent base for a holiday in Crete.

- Easy access to nearby highlights such as Spinalonga Island, Agios Nikolaos, and the beaches of Mirabello Bay makes it a convenient base for exploring eastern Crete.
- The private swimming pool and sunny terrace provide a relaxing space to spend time together throughout the day.

What you should know...
