

Harebell House

Region: The North East Sleeps: 12

Overview

Set in a vast and beautiful estate near the market town of Skipton, Harebell House offers an idyllic escape where space, comfort and nature come together effortlessly. Sensitively restored to a high standard while preserving its original character, this 6-bedroom farmhouse welcomes up to 12 guests, making it an excellent choice for groups of friends and multi-generational families.

Inside, the interiors are warm, stylish and thoughtfully designed for sociable living. The open plan kitchen and dining area forms the heart of the home, creating a relaxed setting for everything from leisurely breakfasts to memorable evening meals around the long dining table. A comfortable sitting room provides the perfect place to unwind after a day outdoors. Six ensuite bedrooms ensure every guest enjoys privacy, including a ground floor bedroom with disabled access. Younger guests will love the fun bunk room, making Harebell House equally suited to family holidays and countryside breaks.

Set within a remarkable 3,000 acre estate on the edge of the Yorkshire Dales, Harebell House combines a wonderfully rural setting with an impressive range of experiences close at hand. Scenic walking and cycling trails weave through woodland and open parkland, while guided wild swimming, woodland saunas, forest bathing and nature recovery tours and other experiences can be arranged, all offering opportunities to immerse yourself in the surrounding countryside.

The estate also features a Wellness Centre with an indoor pool, sauna, steam room, yoga and meditation sessions that guests can access at certain times for a supplement. The wonderful bistro serves daily breakfast (included in the rate) and healthy lunches whilst even closer, around 2km away, there's a traditional pub showcasing regional ales and hearty dishes.

Just 10 minutes by car, the vibrant market town of Skipton invites visitors to explore its historic castle, cobbled streets and picturesque canal, while the Yorkshire Dales National Park and even the Lake District provide unforgettable days out within easy reach. Whether seeking adventure, relaxation or quality time together, Harebell House offers an exceptional base for experiencing the very best of Yorkshire.

Location & Local Information

Set within a magnificent estate in the foothills of the Yorkshire Dales, Harebell House enjoys an enviable setting just a 10-minute drive from the bustling market town of Skipton (7km). This delightful retreat combines the charm of the countryside with easy access to some of Yorkshire's most celebrated attractions.

The 3000-acre estate dates back to the 11th century and is now home to a collection of holiday properties (including a grand historic hall) and offers a range of activities and experiences designed to immerse guests in nature. Discover miles of scenic walking and cycling routes winding through beautiful woodland and open parkland, and check the calendar of community events. Guided wild swimming offers a refreshing way to enjoy the natural surroundings, while woodland saunas, forest bathing and nature recovery tours invite a slower pace. Please ask for full details and pricing.

For complete rejuvenation, the estate's Wellness Centre (3km) features an indoor pool, sauna, steam room, yoga and meditation sessions (see the "Extras" tab for opening times, pricing and pre-booking). Dining is equally convenient, with the estate's bistro (2.6km) serving a complimentary daily breakfast (plus the option of healthy lunches), while a traditional country pub nearby (2km) offers regional real ales and hearty favourites – do book a table in advance.

Just 4km away, the small village of Gargrave (4km) provides all the essentials, including a Co-op food store, a couple of welcoming pubs, a fish and chip takeaway and a range of everyday amenities. Meanwhile, the vibrant market town of Skipton (7km), often known as the 'Gateway to the Yorkshire Dales', delights visitors with its lively atmosphere, cobbled streets and picturesque canal, where leisurely boat trips and waterside strolls are popular pastimes. Be sure to visit the remarkably well-preserved Skipton Castle (7.5km), one of England's finest medieval fortresses.

Beyond the town, some of Yorkshire's most iconic landscapes await. Step aboard the Embsay & Bolton Abbey Steam Railway (15km) for a nostalgic journey through spectacular countryside before exploring the beautiful ruins and riverside walks at Bolton Abbey (17km). The Yorkshire Dales National Park offers countless opportunities for breathtaking hikes, from the dramatic Valley of Desolation to wildlife spotting in Strid Wood, while a hot air balloon flight over Nidderdale rewards visitors with unforgettable panoramic views.

For an inspiring day trip, the Lake District is also within reach, with Ambleside overlooking the northern shores of Lake Windermere around 90 minutes away by car and the picturesque village of Grasmere (95km), renowned for its charming cafés, famous gingerbread and stunning scenery.
