

Cap Estate Cottage

Region: Cap Estate Sleeps: 2

Overview

Tucked away in the peaceful surroundings of Cap Estate, Cap Estate Cottage offers an inviting Caribbean hideaway where privacy, comfort and beautiful views can be enjoyed. Newly refurbished and fully air-conditioned, this charming one-bedroom retreat has been thoughtfully designed for couples, small families and golfers seeking a quieter side of St. Lucia. Inside, a spacious primary suite is furnished with a King-size bed and complemented by a ceiling fan for added comfort. A cosy reading nook has also been positioned to make the most of the lovely sea views, creating an idyllic spot for slow mornings or an afternoon with a book. An en-suite bathroom is fitted with a toilet and shower, while a compact kitchenette is equipped with a refrigerator, stovetop burners, microwave and air fryer, allowing simple meals and snacks to be prepared with ease.

Days at the cottage can be spent at an unhurried pace, with cooling breezes and the tropical surroundings providing a wonderfully relaxed backdrop. Outside, a private mini-pool offers a refreshing place to cool off, while a small BBQ grill can be used for laid-back meals in the open air. Additional flexibility is provided by the comfortable sleeper couch in the living area, where up to two extra guests can be accommodated for an additional fee. Although a peaceful sense of seclusion is offered, the lively attractions of Rodney Bay are only a short distance away, placing beautiful beaches, restaurants and shops within easy reach. Two of the island's top golf courses are also located nearby, making the cottage particularly well suited to golfing escapes. With views, privacy and convenient access to northern St. Lucia, a restful island stay can be enjoyed in comfort.

Location & Local Information

Surrounded by lush tropical scenery and the sparkling waters of the Caribbean Sea, Cap Estate offers a peaceful escape on the beautiful northern tip of St Lucia. Spend sun-filled days relaxing on nearby beaches, including the golden sands of Cas en Bas Beach, or take to the water for swimming, snorkelling, sailing, and paddleboarding. Golf enthusiasts can enjoy a round amid spectacular island scenery, while nearby Rodney Bay offers a lively collection of waterfront restaurants, shops, bars, and cafés. Visit the historic Pigeon Island National Landmark to explore fascinating ruins and walking trails before taking in breathtaking views across the coastline, or head out on a boat trip to discover hidden bays and secluded stretches of sand. From sampling fresh Caribbean flavours to watching colourful sunsets over the sea, Cap Estate combines tranquillity with easy access to some of northern St Lucia's best attractions, creating an idyllic setting for a relaxing and memorable Caribbean getaway.

What we love

- The private mini-pool and BBQ area provide a lovely setting for relaxed days at home, with refreshing dips and laid-back outdoor dining on the agenda
- Beautiful views and cooling Caribbean breezes can be enjoyed from this peaceful Cap Estate hideaway, with a cosy reading nook offering a particularly inviting spot to take them in
- The cottage is a short distance from Rodney Bay, so beaches, restaurants and shops can be reached easily while a quieter setting is enjoyed back at the property
- Two of St. Lucia's top golf courses are nearby, making this an appealing little retreat for couples looking to combine Caribbean sunshine with time on the fairways
