Mas du Hameau

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 12

Overview

Close to the ochre coloured landscapes of Roussillon, Mas du Hameau captures the easy rhythm of life in the Luberon. Set within a little Provençal hamlet, this characterful mas offers generous spaces for families and friends, with its glorious garden providing plenty of room to unwind beneath the southern French sun.

Inside, the house is designed for relaxed gatherings. The bright kitchen and dining space is well equipped for leisurely breakfasts and dinners together, while the comfortable living room offers a restful place to retreat. Six bedrooms accommodate up to 12 guests, including three en suites with showers. Air-conditioning is featured in five of the bedrooms alongside the living and dining area.

Head outdoors and settle beneath the shade of the terrace for long lunches, cool off in the heated swimming pool, or embrace a little friendly competition on the pétanque court and around the ping pong table.

Mas du Hameau is just 4km from Roussillon, one of the Luberon's most distinctive villages, known for its ochre cliffs, colourful houses and the remarkable Sentier des Ocres. Cafés, galleries and artisan boutiques line its streets, while vineyards, cherry orchards and wooded hills shape the surrounding countryside.

Gordes, Bonnieux, Ménerbes and Saint Saturnin lès Apt are all within easy reach, with walking trails, cycling routes and local vineyards offering further ways to discover the region. Apt, 14km away, is particularly worth visiting for its lively Saturday Provençal market.

Whether mornings begin with coffee on the terrace or afternoons unfold between hilltop villages and the pool, Mas du Hameau offers a wonderfully relaxed base for experiencing Provence together.

Location & Local Information

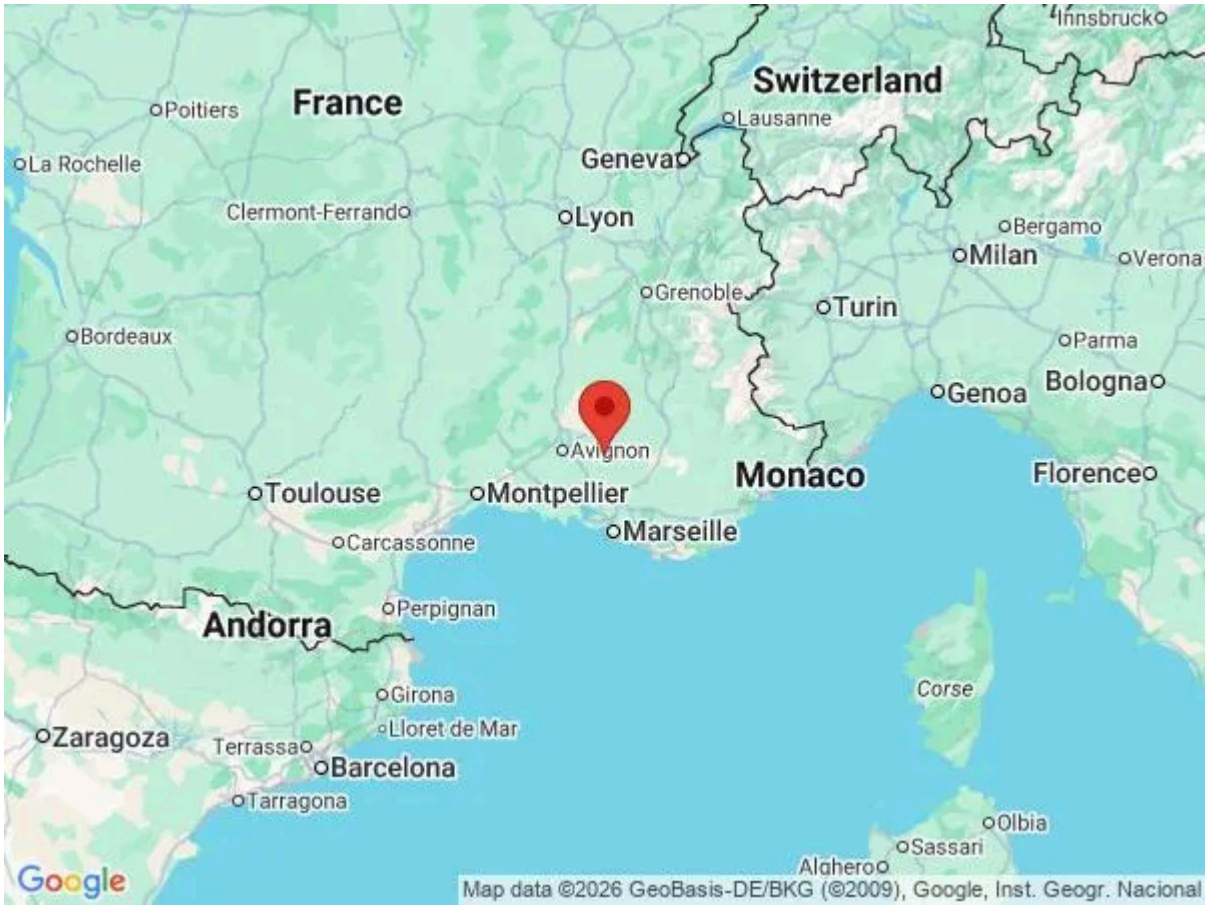

Just a few kilometres from Roussillon, Mas du Hameau rests in a little Provençal hamlet amid the glorious landscapes of the Luberon.

Vineyards, cherry orchards and wooded hills create an idyllic backdrop to this region, while Roussillon (4km) itself is one of the region's most distinctive villages, celebrated for its ochre-coloured houses and dramatic cliffs. Follow the Sentier des Ocres through a remarkable landscape of richly coloured rock, then linger over lunch or browse the village's cafés, galleries and artisan boutiques.

Other enchanting Luberon villages are within a 10 to 15-minute drive. Discover the stone houses and sweeping views of Gordes, explore authentic Joucas or stop in Saint-Saturnin-lès-Apt, loved for its cherry trees and vines. The surrounding countryside invites days spent outdoors, whether walking and hiking through the Luberon landscapes or setting off by bicycle between vineyards and orchards. Wine lovers can also seek out local vineyards and cellars for a taste of the area's winemaking traditions.

Apt (14km) is another essential local stop, especially on Saturday morning when its traditional Provençal market fills the historic centre. Make time for Ménerbes (16km), a beautifully preserved hilltop village overlooking the Calavon valley, and Bonnieux (14km), whose elevated position affords magnificent views towards the Monts de Vaucluse and Mont Ventoux. Continue south through the Luberon to Lourmarin (30km), where winding lanes, galleries and restaurants cluster around an attractive village centre, with its Renaissance château adding another layer of history.

For longer days out, the location also places some of Provence's most memorable destinations within reach. Browse the celebrated antiques and waterside streets of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue, head towards Sault to discover seasonal lavender fields and landscapes around Mont Ventoux, or spend a day in historic Avignon.
