Overview

In the attractive riverside town of Croissy-sur-Seine, Villa Impression offers the space and privacy of a grand private residence within easy reach of the capital. Generous proportions, abundant natural light and refined interiors create an impressive setting for time spent together, whether gathering for a special celebration, hosting an exclusive event or simply enjoying Paris with family and friends.

Inside, the atmosphere pairs classical refinement with genuine comfort. A large reception space provides a sophisticated backdrop for social occasions, complemented by an impressive bar and cosy dining room. The fully equipped kitchen is equally suited to everyday meals or use by chefs and caterers. Downstairs, entertainment takes centre stage with a billiards room and dedicated nightclub space, allowing evenings to continue without leaving the privacy of the villa.

Seven fully air conditioned bedrooms and seven bathrooms (four en suite) comfortably accommodate up to 14 guests while providing plenty of personal space. Outside, the landscaped garden and terrace extend the living areas into the open air, creating opportunities for leisurely afternoons and drinks with friends.

Villa Impression is situated in Croissy-sur-Seine, where leafy streets and the banks of the Seine provide a calming contrast to the energy of central Paris. Local shops, bakeries and restaurants are just a leisurely stroll away, whilst nearby riverbanks invite walks and cycle rides through landscapes once favoured by the Impressionists. The Musée de la Grenouillère is only 600m from the villa, with Chatou's Île des Impressionnistes also within easy reach by bicycle or car.

Beyond Croissy-sur-Seine, guests can spend days discovering the museums, boutiques and celebrated landmarks of Paris, visit the royal estate of Versailles, and explore the Bois de Boulogne and Fondation Louis Vuitton. For groups seeking both the energy of the capital and the freedom of a private residence, Villa Impression provides a distinctive base for memorable stays and special occasions.

Location & Local Information

Villa Impression enjoys a superb setting in Croissy-sur-Seine, an attractive residential town in the Yvelines department, where leafy streets and the banks of the Seine create a wonderfully calm atmosphere within easy reach of the French capital.

Around a 5 to 10-minute stroll brings you to Croissy-sur-Seine's shops, where you can pick up fresh bread and pastries for breakfast, stock up on groceries and choose from a handful of restaurants. The town retains the character of a small community, with family-run businesses and an appealing high street.

In 1869, Claude Monet and Pierre-Auguste Renoir set up their easels at nearby La Grenouillère, capturing scenes of boating and leisure along the river. Today, visit the Musée de la Grenouillère (600m), whilst Chatou's Île des Impressionnistes (1.6km) and Musée Fournaise (1.7km) evoke the artists and landscapes that made these riverbanks so celebrated. Enjoy picturesque riverside walks in the footsteps of the Impressionists, especially between Chatou and Carrières-sur-Seine.

For a day trip to Paris (19km), RER trains depart from Chatou–Croissy station, around a 10-minute walk from the villa, making trips into the heart of the city wonderfully convenient. Spend the day admiring masterpieces at the Louvre or exploring the elegant boulevards, boutiques and cafés of the capital's characterful neighbourhoods. From the Eiffel Tower and Notre-Dame to the artistic streets of Montmartre, Paris offers endless possibilities before returning to the calm of Croissy-sur-Seine.

If you can find the time, head towards the expansive Bois de Boulogne (13km), one of the capital's great green spaces. Its lakes, woodland paths and landscaped gardens offer a picturesque setting for walking, cycling and boating. The park is also home to the beautiful Jardin d'Acclimatation and Fondation Louis Vuitton, renowned for its striking Frank Gehry-designed building and contemporary art exhibitions.

Meanwhile, the magnificent royal estate of Versailles (10km) provides another unforgettable day out amid opulent interiors and formal gardens. Further afield, art lovers can make the journey to Giverny (60km), forever associated with Claude Monet and the landscapes that inspired some of his most celebrated paintings.
