Overview

Overlooking the Seine from one of Paris' most coveted addresses, L'Appartement de l'Île is a remarkable 420 sqm apartment with remarkable heritage. This Haussmann era residence pairs grand Parisian proportions with an exceptional collection of high-valued furniture and works of art.

Oak parquet flows throughout the single-level apartment, while wrought iron balconies and beautiful fireplaces preserve its period character. The vast living room is particularly impressive, filled with striking furnishings and French windows that frame views across the river. A beautifully designed modern kitchen brings a contemporary note to the interiors. Four double bedrooms and four en suite bathrooms provide generous space for families or groups wishing to experience Paris from a residence of rare distinction.

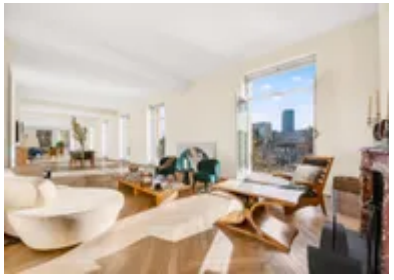

The location is equally memorable. Set on a tree lined quay on Île Saint Louis in the 4th arrondissement, the apartment gazes towards the Left Bank while feeling wonderfully removed from the bustle of central Paris. Spend mornings wandering the island's traditional shops, boutiques and café terraces, stopping at celebrated Maison Berthillon for an ice-cream. For dinner, Michelin starred Le Sergent Recruteur is also within a short walk.

Notre Dame, Le Marais and the Latin Quarter are all within walking distance, while local metro stations offers easy connections across the city. For an exceptional Parisian stay, L'Appartement de l'Île combines history, art and riverside living at the very heart of La Ville Lumière.
